Mighty Quahogs Place 8th in Law Softball Championship

Posted by David Logan on 04/24/2013 at 10:14 AM

One of the traditions at RWU Law is the trek south for the annual national law school softball championships, hosted by my alma mater, the University of Virginia. The Mighty Quahogs have performed well in the past <http://law.rwu.edu/blog/rwu-mighty-quahogs-successful-season-ends-virginia> and this year was no exception.

The tournament featured teams from George Washington, Georgetown, NYU, Columbia, Rutgers (Camden and Newark), Cornell, UConn, Chicago, Fordham, Yale, Brooklyn, Harvard, Michigan, Notre Dame, Regent, Ave Maria, Florida Coastal, Seton Hall, Albany, Baltimore, American, Syracuse, and Vermont.

RWU faced off against one of 4 (!) UVA teams, Cornell, UConn, Penn State (forfeit) and Fordham, finally losing to UVA Blue (the team that eventually came in second).

Congratulations to the latest iteration of the Mighty Quahogs!
