Some Thoughts on Boston

Posted by David Logan on 04/19/2013 at 08:54 AM

RWU Law has many close links to Boston. We have alums practicing law there. Retired faculty and one current faculty member reside there. Current students have externships in Boston.

<http://law.rwu.edu/blog/want-work-general-counsel-cvs-red-sox-gtech-laun...> More specifically, Professors Yelnosky and Brown actually ran in this year's marathon (thankfully not hurt), as did 1L Ryan McCaffery (also fine).

I just learned today that one of our 3Ls, Dan Marusak, who is back enrolled at RWU after a National Guard tour in Afghanistan, <http://law.rwu.edu/blog/saluting-rwu-law-studentsoldier-veterans-day>, was called up to help out with security in the homeland. Here is a picture of Dan patrolling on the T. http://www.nytimes.com/slideshow/2013/04/16/us/20130417_BOSTON-6.html?_r=1&

Like New York after 9/11, I am confident that our friends to the north will persevere in the face of this tragedy and come back stronger than ever.

We are all Bostonians now.
