Did you received my letter dated January 24, 1995 which read as follows:
In 1973 James Deetz, Department of Anthropology at Brown University, applied for and received a grant to instigate an historical archaeological dig at the Mott Farm, Portsmouth, RI. Mr. Deetz received the grant and commenced with the “dig” during the summer of 1973.

I was the project manager for the dismantling of this site and was the person who initially contacted James Deetz through Plimouth Plantation . In going over my records I realize that I never received a copy of Deetz’s report and wonder if you have this report in your files or if it might be at Plimouth Plantation. I would appreciate a copy of any information you have.

Thank you for your interest. I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Anne W. Baker
