ROGER WILLIAMS JR. COLLEGE

Campus Construction To Begin Soon

CAMPUS CONSTRUCTION

Dr. Gauvey, in a recent interview, disclosed the construction of the new campus should begin by late summer or early fall. The 115 acres site in Warwick cost $85,000, and another 12,000 will be spent to prepare the land for construction.

The new campus will be ready for occupation by September, 1965, and will initially accommodate 500-600 students. Expansion of the school will continue each year, with an expected enrollment of 1,000 students in five years time. The faculty will be expanded accordingly.

Various building designs are now under consideration. Although no final decision has been made, the probable design will include six smaller buildings as opposed to fewer, but larger ones. The smaller buildings, said Dr. Gauvey, will be more flexible during expansion.

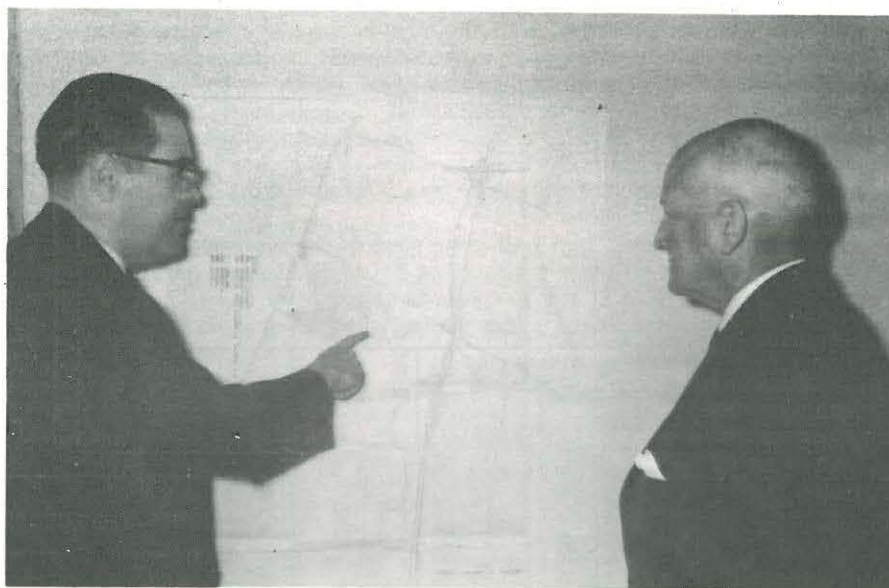

The architects for the campus are Kent, Cruise & Associates. This firm, the designers of Dexter Manor, has designed numerous buildings for colleges in the area.

Dr. Gauvey reports that the building fund is progressing satisfactorily to date and he expects a few large donations in the near future.

The building fund received gifts of $150 from both the day and evening student council. He expressed his thanks for the donations, and commented that they represent the student interest in the new campus.

The new campus, Dr. Gauvey pointed out, should increase school spirit by providing an academic atmosphere for students and also by giving us our own buildings.

He also pointed out that any traditions the school will have will be started here. The students presently attending Roger Williams, have the opportunity of initiating activities, clubs, and traditions, and have their work, their actions, as a part of the new campus. Now is the time for action on the part of the students.

Dr. Gauvey shows Mr. Anderson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, the new campus site.

SENIOR CLASS PROM - JUNE 9

Ray Kelley, chairman of the Senior Prom Committee, has announced that the Prom will be held on June 9, at the Colony Motor Hotel in Cranston. Music for the prom will be provided by Tommy Masso. Dress will be formal. The dinner will be served at 8 p.m., preceded by a cocktail hour.

Carl Walker, chairman of the Alumni Dinner committee, has announced that the Annual Homecoming dinner sponsored by the senior class for the alumni will be held at the Hearthstone on Saturday, June 6. This promises to be a good time as this dinner has been held at the Hearthstone in previous years with a great deal of success. In addition to the various academic awards presented to outstanding seniors by the school, Mr. Russo, coach of the basketball team will present individual awards to the members of this years team.

Seniors are reminded that the senior assessment has to be paid by May 1, 1964. This assessment of $14 covers one ticket to the Alumni Dinner, and two tickets to the Senior Prom. This assessment can be paid at any time in the college bookstore.

Plans are in the making for at least one senior picnic to be held at Newport during Senior Week, June 1 to June 5. No doubt there are other events in the planning stage, so all seniors are urged to keep this week free if at all possible. Any senior interested in offering a site for a picnic or party should contact any class officer.

Just one more reminder, it is not too late to order your class ring. You must, however, do it quickly if you want your ring before you graduate.

EDITORIAL

Each year at this time, students of all schools and colleges throughout the United States face a period of scholastic depression and personal educational revolt. They become languid, slacking in their grades, succumbing to the attitude of 'laissez-faire'. Their school books become mementos on their bedroom shelves and their only motto is fun, fun, fun. They neglect their nightly preparation of the next morning's classes and hit the road with their friends. They wander aimlessly looking for excitement, new faces, and harmless mischief, only to awake the next morning with a sick feeling in the pit of their stomachs when they think of the mountain of work they neglected. But now it's too late. All they have left to do is face the consequences. Then when the 'F' grade on the math quiz is received, or the 'D' on the term paper because of poor preparation is handed back, do these flamboyant students wish they could reschedule their evening's antics over again this time with their hands on books instead of steering wheels. But, still the same pattern continues night after night, and the same excuse continues day after day, through the period of final exams. Rarely do students wake up until it's too late.

This 'rapture of Spring' or 'Spring Fever' as it is sometimes called, envelops college students every year at the culmination of Winter. Most colleges provide a two week Spring vacation in which students are allowed to release their anxieties. They roam southern beaches, maintain an exhausting night life, and sometimes return to their respective campuses relieved, refreshed, and ready to settle down to their work. We at R.W.J.C. had no time to exhaust our anxieties. A two day Easter recess is nothing compared to the two week vacations had at other colleges and universities. Perhaps the students of Roger Williams are trying to supplement the lack of a vacation by cutting classes and rescheduling them down River Road. Those students who have three or four cuts in each course should stop and realize the mistake they have made. Perhaps the warm weather has been too much already, or as one teacher calmly stated to his class: "If you think it's hot now, it's going to get a hell of a lot hotter later on."

Smarten up students! Don't let your spur of the moment flamboyancy go to waste down River Road when it should be put to use in a classroom. Grasp hold of the consequences before they grasp hold of you, and come June, you'll be glad you did when your report card is blossoming with 'A's and 'B's.

Rosemary DeKold interviews Dr. Gauvey

QUILL EDITOR 1964-65

Miss Rosemary DeKold has been elected editor of the Quill for the school year starting September, 1964.

Rosemary, a second semester student in general studies, attended Mt. Pleasant High School in Providence. While a student at Mt. Pleasant, she was a member of the school newspaper and the Dramatics Club.

Rosemary joined the Quill Staff last semester, and has written a number of lead stories, including the interview with Gov. George Wallace of Alabama.

Besides being a member of the Quill, Rosemary is a member of the Dramatics Club and the Sorority.

Rosemary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael DeKold, of 113 Pamona Ave., Providence. She plans to attend URI and major in journalism when she completes her studies at Roger Williams.

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club presented their production of "Little Acorns" by Bettye Knapp on April 11, 1964. Preceding the play various students participated in a talent show. Those participating were: James Norris, Joseph Robertson, Frances Kokolski, Meredith Thayer and Dale Murchison. Carl Walker was the master of ceremonies.

The members of the cast were: Irene Melone, John Capurso, Holly Hollstein, Dale Murchison, Ellen Corrigeux, James Scott, Jane Lyons, and Richard Perkins. The cast did a fine job in making this play a hilarious success.

The members of the stage crew were: Bob Corrigan, manager; Ray Funaro, Frank Mezzancella, Joyce Rattenni, Lucille Mignella, Lois Caprio, Arleen Marrone, and Joyce Almond.

After the play, the cast presented Mr. and Mrs. Rizzini with a cocktail shaker, and server sets. They also presented Bob Corrigan with some men's cologne for his superb job as stage manager.

In the near future, the club plans to attend "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World" and "A Funny Thing Happened on The Way to the Forum."

Mr. Rizzini, faculty advisor of the club, announced that the club will give a donation to the school's scholarship fund this year.

PROFILE ON EDUCATORS

Mr. James Russo, an instructor of mathematics and general studies joined the faculty of Roger Williams in 1956. He is married and presently resides in East Providence.

Mr. Russo, a native Rhode Islander, attended Classical High School and Rhode Island College where he received his Ed. B. He then attended Boston University where he earned his LL. B.

Besides teaching here at Roger Williams, Mr. Russo conducts a law practice from his offices at Westminster St., Providence.

Mr. Russo has been the coach of the basketball team for the past three years, and because of his efforts it is the first athletic team to be officially recognized by the college.

When asked his opinion of the students here, Mr. Russo said they show a great deal of initiative. "The students of Roger Williams", stated Mr. Russo, "have opportunities not to be found in other established schools. Organizations, such as the fraternity, the sorority, the political group, etc., the athletic teams, etc. are the direct result of student initiative." "The students of Roger Williams have been, and are organizing and establishing and maintaining these activities."

"Roger Williams has been known as the school that provides a second chance for students," he said, "and they are making the most of it."

LITERARY CONTEST

The winner of the first literary contest sponsored by the "Quill", was A. Tetreault, a first year student in general studies.

Mr. Tetreault plans to attend R. I. College and major in English after he graduates from Roger Williams.

The purpose of the contest is to offer an award to students for their achievements in areas other than sports.

THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE AMERICAN EMPIRE

by A. Tetreault

*We are the children of the Second Holocaust
Sired by the Hollow Men.*

*In fire were we born,
But in cold will we meet our end.*

*Affection without love,
Censure without correction,
Words without The Word.*

*This was once the fearsome land
This is now the fearful land
Here an Eagle once spread its wings
Here a Raven now flies overhead
Under the twinkle
Of a bright Red Star.*

*This is the land;
We have our inheritance.*

*Let us go not naked
Let us always wear
Such formless self disguisers:
Parrot-like speech,
Puppet-like motion,
Paralyzed thought.*

*Listeners without ears,
Spectators without eyes,
Sheep without The Shepherd.*

*This is the land of compromise
This is the home of double-thought
Here the lips babble to Christ
While the hearts commune with Dagon
Pray for us sinners, not now,
but at the hour of our deaths.*

*Hungry voices are raising
A frightening chant;
Let us spend this night
In a Soma trance.*

*"In apathy and in indifference
In oppression and in exploitation
Were we conceived."*

*"Workers arise, you have nothing to lose
but your chains"*

*"In hunger hardened will
In hatred hardened hearts
We shall arise."*

*"Workers arise, you have nothing to lose
but your chains"*

*"In your fearsome cry and meek consent
In your fervent babble and weak intent
In your Christian jelly and Pagan cement
We will bury you*

*"For to the strong
Belongs the kingdom
And the power
And the glory
Forever
And ever
Amen."*

KAPPA PHI

PHI KAPPA SORORITY

Miss Lucille Mignella, a freshmen student at RWJC has been selected as Phi Kappa's candidate in the Miss Roger Williams contest. Lucille is a graduate of St. Patrick High School and resides in Providence.

In addition to being in the general program at RWJC, Lucille is also a member of the dramatics club. She hopes to go to the University of Rhode Island and major in Home Economics.

NEWMAN CLUB

Our candidate for Miss Roger Williams is Barbara Waskiells. She is a first year student at R.W.J.C. and a graduate of Johnston High School. Barbara plans a career in nursing.

On Wednesday, May 6 members of our club will attend a day of Recollection to be held at Our Lady of Peace Retreat House. We extend an invitation to all interested students to attend. The cost is $2.50 per person. This fee includes meals. The hours are from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Msgr. Brock will conduct the meeting. Father Cunningham of Providence College will be our guest speaker at our May 13 meeting.

Barbara Gentili was chosen to represent our club at the Provincial Convention in Hartford, Conn. on April 17-19.

New officers for next year were elected at our last meeting. They are Ray Funaro—President, Ray Mederios—Vice President, Anne LeBeau—Secretary and Barbara Gentile—Treasurer. The new president is looking forward to a very active year. Ray is looking for a large increase in membership next year over this year's membership.

CORONATION BALL

The annual Coronation Ball, sponsored by the "Quill" will be held at the Cliff House, Rocky Point, on May 16.

The highlight of the dance will be the crowning of Miss Roger Williams by last year's winner, Elaine Elsbree.

Six organizations are sponsoring candidates this year; the Newman Club, the Political Club, the Choral Group, the Fraternity, the Sorority, and the Student Council.

The dance will be semi-formal. Admission will be $5.00 per couple, which will include a dinner for two. Dancing will be from 8:00 P.M. to 1:00 A.M., with the Billy Weston Band and the Islanders both supplying the music.

Plan to attend. Everyone else will be there.

Frank Viera, President of the Student Council, presents Dr. Gauvey with a $150 check for the building fund.

Student Council News

The responsibility for the Student Lounge, its care, and use, is left up to the students of RWJC. Unfortunately, several incidents concerning the abuse of the Student Lounge have been brought to the attention of the Student Council this year. An example of the abuse to the lounge occurred when a number of ashtrays were reported missing, presumably taken by students. Since these ashtrays were not returned, the responsibility of replacing them was left to the student council.

Frank Viera, President of the council, remarked that last year, considerable damage was done to the furniture in the lounge. The cost amounted to $225.40 to reupholster this furniture. Mr. Viera further stated that anyone caught destroying furniture or defacing property would pay for the damage done plus be subject to severe disciplinary action.

KAPPA PHI ELECTS QUEEN

During the annual Queen Dance, which was held at Johnson's Hummocks on March 28, 1964, Jo-Ann Pugliese was elected Miss Kappa Phi of 1964.

Miss Pugliese, a resident of Warwick, graduated from Pilgrim High School in 1962. She is enrolled in the general program and intends to receive an Associate Degree. Upon graduation, Jo-Ann would like to attend a nursing school.

The Queen was crowned by Mr. Robert Wall, faculty advisor for Kappa Phi Fraternity. Other candidates in the Miss Kappa Phi contest were Jane Lyons, and Monica Jannitto.

The baseball team has set an unprecedented achievement of 2 wins and 1 loss thus far in the season.

The two wins were against Barrington, 11-4, and Holyoke, 7-6. The loss was against RIC by a score of 13-3. The loss to RIC was one of quantity and not quality. RIC has a 25 man team while, during this game, RWJC fought with an 8 man defense. RWJC held RIC 'til the last inning until quantity wore down the stalwart RWJC tigers. Keep in mind, also, this was RIC's fifth game and the first for RWJC.

The lead hitter this season so far is Dave Hanson who has a record of 11 hits for 19 times at bat.

The team has been invited to the Junior College tournament at Dean Jr. College, Franklin, Mass. After this tournament, if successful, the team will be the New England Champions. This will be a three game round robin elimination which will start Saturday May 2, at 9:30.

STUDENT TEACHERS

James R. Warrick, Jr., Executive Director of the Providence Human Relations Commission, today called for additional volunteer teachers to help in a new program of offering special tutoring classes in all subjects to youngsters in South Providence.

He said that since March 9, 1964, 12 students from Rhode Island College have been offering after-school tutoring lessons to 24 boys and girls at the Mary E. Fogarty Elementary School. Three other RIC students have been working with 10 Junior High School students at the South Providence branch of the Providence Public Library, 441 Prairie Avenue.

The tutoring is offered once a week at each place—on Fridays at the school and on Wednesdays at the library.

The Program is being run jointly by the Commission and the University of Rhode Island Cooperative Extension Service in South Providence. The Director of the Extension Service, Frank Culp, and Mr. Warrick cooperated in establishing the tutoring sessions earlier this year.

Mr. Warrick said "We have a great need for more volunteer teachers to meet the growing demand for our tutoring services from South Providence parents. Interested volunteers should get in touch with the U.R.I. Cooperative Extension Service in South Providence, 111 Plain St. Telephone number is 751-0700.

Mr. Warrick said the present program is a pilot study to see what can be ac-

POLITICAL CLUB

The Roger Williams Junior College Politics Club recently held a straw vote in the school. The results of the election have been posted on the bulletin board.

On Tuesday, March 2, Francis Rao, candidate for Mayor of Providence spoke to the Club about politics in the State. The Club has been discussing state and city politics for several weeks. Ray Funaro and James Peskin spoke to the group on the politics of Providence and Cranston.

Friday, April 24, the Politics Club along with Mr. Verstandig attended the afternoon sessions of the Senate and House of Representatives at the State House. About 25 students watched as the Senate passed the Democrat Medi-Care Bill.

The meetings of the Politics Club are held Tuesday afternoons at 1:00. All students are invited to come and discuss the various aspects of politics in national, state and local levels.

PEACE CORPS

One of the most critical shortages in the developing nations is in the area of technically trained manpower.

Mechanics provide the vital link in many of these programs. They are needed to maintain trucks for mobile health units, tractors for new agricultural projects, and earth moving equipment for road construction.

This summer Peace Corps volunteer mechanics are needed for programs in Iran, Somali Republic, Ecuador and British Honduras.

In order to be eligible for the Peace Corps, volunteer mechanics must be American citizens. If married, both husband and wife must qualify to serve in the same country, and they must have no dependents under 18.

Volunteers receive living allowances to cover the cost of food, housing, transportation, appropriate clothing and miscellaneous expenses. Medical care is provided by the Peace Corps.

Interested persons should write the Office of Public Affairs, Peace Corps, Washington, D. C., 20525.
