Although we are from diverse backgrounds, our lives up until now have been centered around Roger Wiliams College.

For the past four years, our lives have been centered around academics, sports, and extracurricular activities.

We have established and achieved goals, made and nutured friendships, and developed values and a sense of responsibility.

With the quidence we have recieved and the knowledged we have attained from friends, faculty members and parents, we are now prepared to explore what the world has to give us.

DEDICATION:

(ded'e ka'shen) 1. to set apart, devote to a special purpose. 2. to address to someone sign of honor.

Mr. Melchar's dedicated professionalism and genuine concern has been an inspiration to us all. Alumni of Roger Willams class of '76, Dave returned to the college in 1986 to pursue his teaching career; the same time we entered as freshman. Over the past four years, Mr. Melchar's integrity, commitment, involvement and honesty has added another dimension to our college community.

Dave Melchar has led an exciting, impressive youth. At age 19, he enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps, where he served on the flagship USS Springfield, throughout the Mediterranean. In 1966, he was recommended by his captain for Officer Candidate School. Following his graduation from OCS, Dave was recognized as the youngest Battery Commander in Artillery. Dave served his country throughout the Vietnam era, stationed on many American bases; as well as those in Western Europe, Australia and the Orient.

A distinguishment only call "teacher", but more appromarked reputation?)

Mr. Melchar's ambition and determination led him to acquiring his MBA in Financial Management. It was during this time that he began his teaching career in Monterey. But we have been the fortunate ones.

Planning to raise their children in the Northeast, in 1986 the Melchars moves RWC members, these priceless educational back to Rhode Island. Re-entering the institution Dave had excelled in as a student, he would now lecture from the podiums of his former instructors; Paul Langello, Bob Quin, Doug King, John Pozzi, Ed Brown and Tony lanucelli, had years before contributed to Dave's academic growth.

From the Heart... and Other Roasting Thoughts

"Thanks for caring!" Ray Marhara, senior class.

"Dave, I have enjoyed and appreciated our work together trying to develop a program that would help students succeed. We've shared hard work and lots of laughter." Karen Haskell, Dean of Students.

"I love you Dave for making my coffee every morning, but I must say you are 'LAST MINUTE DAVE'." Paulina Marbello, Business Division Secretary.

"Dave, thank you for all your help on our trips through Europe, but like all good marines, you always got us lost!" Tucker Wright, teacher.

"Dave was the very best student I ever had! I taught him everything I know. We took a vote, and made you the honorary member in the 'Hair Club for Men', remember the dangers of nonoxadil I've warned you about." Tony lannucelli, teacher.

"Dave has a sincere concern for the welfare of all the students. His door is open from 7 am to 7 pm, and you can count on him to help in any situation." Dr. Malcome Forbes, Dean of the College.

"I had only one class with you sophomore year, but ever since then you have always had a warm smile and hello as we passed in the hallways. You have been my extension for administrative information and won a round of applause from the senior class, for your limitless help and dedication." Sarah Blanchard, Senior Class President.

ROOMFUL OF BLUES!

From its humble beginings with its own inimatable sound, a playing coffee shops in Westerly, RI in the late 60's, Roomful of Blues has placed its musical emphasis on playing dance music with feeling. In doing so the Band explored all the regional styles of blues, from Chicago, New Orleans, Texas through the West Coast, plus all the genres; R&B, Rock 'n' Roll, Jump and Swing. Roomful covered all the bases. With this type of mix Roomful added its own tunes, arrangements, and came up sound that attracted musicians, fans and critics alike.

To date Roomful has released 8 ablums, appeared several times on National TV, and appeared in the Diane Keaton movie, "The Good Mother". On November 17th, Roomful of Blues came to Roger Williams College to perform, to delight and to satisfy the students who were looking for good music.
