'Unspoken Language: Silent Landscapes' – A Visual Arts Exhibition

Local art museum provides space for seniors to display and discuss their work

BRISTOL, R.I. - As their work hung throughout the walls of the Bristol Art Museum’s upstairs gallery space, graduating seniors Juliana, Gabby, Bella, Colin and Tanner networked with members of the local art community. This exhibition continues an ongoing and growing collaboration between the university and museum, providing RWU students with the opportunity to learn from working artists in local studio and gallery spaces.
