Commencement Exercises

Class of

Nineteen Hundred and Ninety Three

1993

May Twenty-Second

Bristol, Rhode Island

HONORARY DEGREE CANDIDATES

Vartan Gregorian

Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

President, Brown University

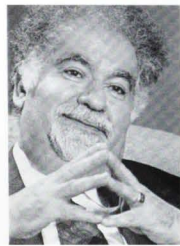

B.A. Stanford University
Ph.D. Stanford University

"A nationally-renowned educator, you have kept Brown University in the forefront of higher education with your enthusiasm, energy and innovation.

Described as 'powerful, charismatic and a man whose handshake alone leaves an indelible impression,' you assumed the presidency of Brown University in September 1989, vowing to make Brown 'the most powerful house of intellect on the East Coast.'

In so doing, you applied the same vision and leadership that you brought to the revitalization of the New York Public Library, which you served as President and Chief Executive Officer from 1981-1989. In that eight-year period, you raised the library's endowment from $94 million to $150 million and are credited with saving its landmark building as well as conserving thousands of antique volumes.

Although your professional credentials are impressive, you are perhaps best known for the force of your personality and ability to transmit your passion for culture and learning to others."

Stephen Hamblett

Honorary Doctor of Journalism

Chairman of the Board,
Publisher and Chief Executive
Officer, The Providence
Journal Company

A.B. Harvard College

"Your name tops the masthead of Rhode Island's largest and most influential newspaper, The Providence Journal-Bulletin. More than a quarter million subscribers depend upon your publication daily as their principal news source.

Under your leadership, The Providence Journal-Bulletin has continued its legacy of editorial excellence and public service to New England. Consistent adherence to sound journalistic principles has made yours among the most respected regional newspapers in the nation. You have made The Providence Journal-Bulletin a watchdog on crucial issues affecting Rhode Island. Your newspaper has earned the trust of its readers for your strong advocacy of the environment, ethical reform in government and other concerns critical to the future of our state."

Alan G. Hassenfeld

Honorary Doctor of Business

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Hasbro, Inc.

B.A. University of Pennsylvania

"Your company, Hasbro, Inc., is the largest toy company in the world, with global sales of $2.5 billion in 1992 and 11,000 employees worldwide.

Your products — Monopoly, Nerf, Trivial Pursuit, Mr. Potato Head, Scrabble, 'Cabbage Patch' kids and G.I. Joe, to name a few — are international household words.

Rhode Island has benefited from your leadership and philanthropy in innumerable ways. Your initiative in forming the good-government coalition, Right Now!, represents a giant step forward in ethics reform. Your compassion for children everywhere has led Hasbro to become a major supporter of the new $50 million Children's Hospital in Providence which bears your company's name.

Your 'child's play' continues to benefit Rhode Islanders and all who are young at heart."

Donald F. Shea

Honorary Doctor of Laws

Associate Justice, Supreme Court of Rhode Island

A.B. Providence College
J.D. Georgetown University
School of Law

"A native of Rhode Island, you have risen to the highest ranks of the State's Judiciary, with your appointment to the Supreme Court of Rhode Island where you have served with distinction since January 1981.

In your 12 years as an associate justice of the Supreme Court of Rhode Island, you have authored some 480 opinions, presiding over major trials, both civil and criminal. Unquestioned integrity and utter fairness have characterized each of your decisions, and your conscientious application of the law has been a credit to the bench.

As a member of the Roger Williams University Law School Advisory Board, you played an important role in the Board's recommendation to establish the State of Rhode Island's first School of Law at Roger Williams University.

Perhaps the highest tribute that could be paid you is that your distinguished record and outstanding accomplishments have never overshadowed your innate humility and nobility of spirit."

The gowns range from unornamental for a bachelor; to longer sleeves for a master; to more ornamental, with three bands on the sleeve and front panel, for a doctor.
