ANNUAL REPORT

1992 – 1993

It is a time-tested adage in fund raising that "people give to people." In the midst of balance sheets, financial reports and goal summaries, it is easy to lose sight of that fact.

This report includes statistics that reflect another successful year in voluntary support, a year that found Roger Williams University on target with more than $4 million raised toward the $20 million Campaign for the 90s goal. More importantly, it is also a pictorial story of our people and what your gifts have meant to them.

They are students, faculty, alumni, volunteer leaders, and friends of Roger Williams University, men and women, from many academic disciplines and professions. What they share in common is that all benefited from your support to Roger Williams University in Fiscal Year 1992 (July 1, 1992-June 30, 1993).

These gifts made a difference for the humanities student who used a newly-acquired collection in the University Main Library; for the business major who widened her horizons at a lecture by a corporate executive, one of a series made possible by an endowment; for the chemistry faculty member who could instruct in new laboratories; and for the trustee who was able to "give a gift-get a gift" through a new Charitable Gift Annuity Program.

Voluntary giving also benefited the adult health care professional who needed financial assistance to complete her education; the marine biology alumna who earned her degree thanks to an endowed scholarship; the community resident who attended a classical guitar concert underwritten by an arts grant; and the theatre faculty member who studied in London with the help of a faculty development grant.

To you whose names appear in the following pages, thank you for the support that has made a difference to the individuals pictured in this report and to countless others whose stories do not appear. To other friends of the University who may consider participating in the future, we hope that you will recall these success stories when the next opportunity arises.

Your continued support of Roger Williams University will enable you to share in the immeasurable satisfaction that comes from making a direct and lasting contribution to the well-being and personal growth of others.

Cordially,

Anthony J. Santoro
President of the University

SUMMARY OF VOLUNTARY SUPPORT
TO ROGER WILLIAMS UNIVERSITY
JULY 1, 1992 TO JUNE 30, 1993

Gifts-in-Kind	$191,467
Special Gifts
Scholarships	$77,504
Other Special Gifts	$452,501
Library Building Fund	$610,429
Library Endowed Book Fund	$3,630
Total Voluntary Support (7/1/92 - 6/30/93)	$1,335,531

Voluntary support from alumni, parents, corporations, foundations and friends is central to the continued vital existence of any educational institution.

At Roger Williams University, support continues strong and on schedule for the ten-year, $20 million Campaign for the 90s, a comprehensive development plan for the decade. Since July 1, 1989, the University has raised more than $4.7 million — approximately 24 percent — of that $20 million goal.

In Fiscal Year 1992, from July 1, 1992—June 30, 1993, the Campaign for the 90s — the development portion of the University Plan for the 90s — has raised a total of $1,335,531 in pledges, cash gifts, gifts of materials and deferred gifts. The cumulative total raised for the Campaign since its inception on July 1, 1989, through June 30, 1993, is $4,713,059. All undesignated gifts have been earmarked for the $4 million Library Building Fund, which has been incorporated into the Campaign for the 90s.

The Campaign will fund facilities needs in five areas: (a) University Main Library; (b) $1 million renovation of the former main library, recently dedicated as the School of Business; (c) $4,000,000 construction of a new School of Engineering Building and laboratories; (d) $2,000,000 construction of a Marine Biology Waterfront Facility including dedicated research facilities; and (e) $4,000,000 Auditorium and Performing Arts facility. It will also provide for non-facilities needs including: General Scholarship Fund ($1,000,000); Equipment ($3,000,000); Endowed Chairs for Contemporary Forums and other lecture series ($500,000); and Professional Development ($500,000).

More than just a financial commitment, your gift is a personal message to the University that you believe in the value of higher education and private philanthropy. By contributing a portion of your own resources toward the continued growth and prosperity of Roger Williams University, you are making an important investment in the future of our nation and the world.

*B*ristol is fortunate to have several community art groups that bring theatre, music and the visual arts to its residents on a grass-roots level. This atmosphere is enriched greatly by RISCA's support for such series as the Mair-Davis Artist-in-Residency Program. The professionalism of Roger Williams University events, which are always open to the community, does much to enhance the quality of life in our town.

Our students need the exposure to a wide variety of modern instrumentation to be competitive in industrial and research positions once they leave the University. We are indeed grateful for the support of regional corporations like the Perkin-Elmer Corporation who generously donated a new FTIR Spectrometer to the Chemistry Department. These far-sighted corporations realize that support of education means a better work force for them several years later.

'Tis the Season for Giving...

December 1993

Dear Roger Williams Supporter:

It's that time of year again... when gift-giving is uppermost in our minds. While we think primarily of family and friends, it is also a time to remember Roger Williams University.

As you read this Annual Report of Giving, you will see hundreds of parents, alumni, foundations and corporations which have placed the University high on their list of institutions that deserve support.

Roger Williams University depends on your gift each year. Tuition continues to cover most of the total University budget, but we need your gift to help to make up the difference.

So, if you haven't done so already, I hope you will make your annual gift to Roger Williams today...in the spirit of giving and in the spirit of supporting an institution which exists to provide the best educational opportunities possible.

Help Roger Williams University continue to excel in the field of higher education. The students will thank you!

Happy Holidays to you and yours!

Gary M. Keighley
Vice President for Development

P.S. The end of the tax year is approaching. For 1993 deductions, you need to make your gift by December 31.

Roger Williams University Campaign for the 90s

The Campaign for the 90s – the development portion of the University Plan for the 90s – has exceeded its goal of raising $4 million for capital and non-facilities needs during fiscal years 1990 and 1991. The Campaign establishes a $20 million goal by the end of the decade. Thanks to your ongoing participation, the Campaign raised $4,033,961 from July 1, 1989 – June 30, 1992.

Strengthened by this firm foundation of support from all constituencies, Roger Williams University is poised to begin Years Three and Four of the Campaign with a strong track record of voluntary giving.

Your Gift will help us to achieve continued success.

Endowed lectureships offered by the School of Business have brought many top-flight speakers to the Bristol Campus, giving students like myself a realistic look at the business world and what it has to offer.

Working with the artists of the Royal National Theatre was a joyful, challenging and enriching opportunity. The consequence of the program – in which I was both student and working actor – was to bring me new perspectives about myself and new approaches to acting that I am now sharing with students in class and Performing Arts Center productions.

Mr. Wright was the recipient of a Faculty Development Fund Scholarship with support from David A. Driver, James Lobermann and Ada Mogayzel.

The E. Diane Davis Scholarship Fund enabled me to complete my education within a time frame that was important for my career and future academic goals. Without this support, at the very least I would have been forced to delay my education because of other financial commitments.

I invested in a Gift Annuity because it represents a "win-win" opportunity, both for me and the University. I highly recommend Gift Annuities to my friends and associates as a way to make a significant long-term investment in support of educational programs while increasing their income and getting a tax break at the same time. But the best part is that my Gift Annuity will help students get a better education. I like that a lot.

The Paolino and Whitcomb scholarships benefit students majoring in the fine and performing arts.

Roger Williams University Campaign for the 90s

The Campaign for the 90s – the development portion of the University Plan for the 90s – has exceeded its goal of raising $4 million for capital and non-facilities needs during fiscal years 1990 and 1991. The Campaign establishes a $20 million goal by the end of the decade. Thanks to your ongoing participation, the Campaign raised $4,033,961 from July 1, 1989 – June 30, 1992.

Strengthened by this firm foundation of support from all constituencies, Roger Williams University is poised to begin Years Three and Four of the Campaign with a strong track record of voluntary giving.

Your Gift will help us to achieve continued success.

Ways to Give to Roger Williams University

Roger Williams University encourages charitable gifts, which have become vital to strengthening academic quality and enhancing campus life. Such gifts help support scholarships, build library collections, purchase scientific equipment, assist capital projects, or match challenge grants.

Gifts of cash, stocks, bonds, and securities, as well as gifts of art work, scientific equipment, and other in-kind gifts, are greatly valued by the University. We also urge you to consider Roger Williams University as a beneficiary in your insurance policy or in your will.

For more information about making a gift to the University, please call the Development Office at (401) 254-3204 or 1-800-458-7144 toll-free out-of-state.

Checks are made payable to "Roger Williams University" and sent to: Development Office, Roger Williams University, Bristol, Rhode Island, 02809-2921. All gifts to the Campaign for the 90s will be listed in the President's Report unless otherwise indicated. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
