TO MEMBERS OF THE LAW SCHOOL COMMUNITY:

Please plan to attend Friday's Martin Luther King Celebration Keynote Address by Professor Craig Futterman in room 283 from 4 – 5:00 p.m.

Professor Futterman's lecture "The Dream or Broken Promise? Our Constitutional Rights Through the Eyes of Black America" will include on stories about race and the police and our criminal justice system.

It will comment on the Constitution in practice in Black and Brown communities in inner-city America.

Professor Craig Futterman supervises the Civil Rights and Police Accountability Project (PAP) at the University of Chicago School of Law.

The Project's goals are to enhance police accountability and improve police services in Chicago. Through the lens of live-client work, law students study the nature of police accountability and misconduct and the primary challenges to improving police services.

I hope you to see you there.
