LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Graduate:

Welcome back to the tent! It seems hard to believe that it was just a few short years ago that I welcomed you to Roger Williams University at new student Convocation. And while much of the tradition and ceremony seems the same – the marching, caps and gowns, speeches, cheering and tears – much more has changed.

The University has grown tremendously in your time here, both physically and in reputation. We have earned our place regionally, nationally and internationally as a respected name in a variety of academic disciplines. We have been engaged in the world through the articulation of our core values – love of learning, preparation for future careers and study, student-faculty research, service and sustainability, a global perspective and civil discourse. In many ways our transformation can be attributed to students like you, who have carried those values with you in your journeys.

And while you have had just a year to enjoy the classrooms and technology centers in Global Heritage Hall and the comfortable suites in our new residence hall, please know that the transformation of our campus is your legacy and that you will forever be welcome as a member of our community.

During your years at Roger Williams, you have changed as well. You have heard dynamic speakers such as Celine Cousteau, Bob Geldof, Lisa Ling and Christopher Hitchens. You and your classmates have set records by studying abroad in larger numbers and in more countries than your predecessors and by logging the most community service hours this University has ever seen.

Some of you spoke out against the wrongful imprisonment of writers in places like Tibet and Cuba, presented scholarly papers with faculty, won conference championships or trekked to El Salvador to confront public health challenges in the University's first global service trip.

Be proud. You have accomplished a great deal here. And if the past four years are any indication, you will do much more in the years ahead.

Congratulations on this milestone of graduation, and I wish you luck moving forward. It is a turbulent world out there, but you are well prepared. And I hope that – no matter where your life, career, travels and commitment to serve others takes you – you remember the important role that Roger Williams University and our faculty, staff and students played in helping you find your way there.

Sincerely,

Roy J. Nirschel, Ph.D.

PRESIDENT'S CORE VALUES MEDALLION

The President's Core Values Medallion was established in 2007 to recognize those graduating seniors who best exemplify the core values of Roger Williams University. The students awarded this honor have truly embraced the University's core values: love of learning as an intrinsic value; preparation for careers and future study; collaboration of students and faculty in research; commitment to community through service and sustainability; appreciation of global perspectives; and promotion of civil discourse.

The University President, working in concert with each of the schools, selected the Presidential Award honorees. Honorees will be presented with a unique medallion – depicting the core values - framed in a commemorative keepsake. The medallion is identical to the one worn by President Nirschel as part of his presidential Commencement regalia.

Please congratulate the award recipients.

Lindsay Ann Brugger - School of Architecture, Art and Historic Preservation

Ikekeen Davon Hardy - School of Continuing Studies

Katelin Elinor Richard - School of Education

William Joseph DeVyllder, Jr. - School of Engineering, Computing and Construction Management

Ashley E. Lago - Feinstein College of Arts and Sciences, Humanities and Performing Arts Division

Angela Ruth Possinger - Feinstein College of Arts and Sciences, Math and Natural Sciences Division

Lauren E. Marini - Feinstein College of Arts and Sciences, Social Sciences Division

Kemal G. Demirhisar - Gabelli School of Business

Christopher Joseph DiSciullo - School of Justice Studies

Kelleigh Erin Welch - At Large

Damara Ortolani Sisti - At Large

Elizabeth Jean Correa - At Large

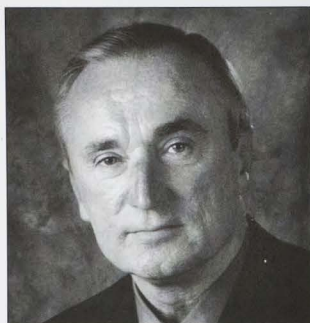

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

Normando Hernández González

A Cuban journalist, writer-at-risk and prisoner of conscience who fully embodies the core values set forth by the University, Mr. González will be awarded the medallion in absentia.

Please Note: Out of respect for the Graduates, Honorary Degree recipients and other speakers, we ask that you turn off all cellular phones and noise-making pagers during the ceremony. Thank you.

For the comfort of some of our families and guests, seating with a live video feed is available in the Campus Recreation Center Gymnasium and School of Law.

WILLIAM J. BRATTON

Chairman, Altregrity Risk International

*Doctor of Justice Studies
Honoris Causa*

As one of America's premier police chiefs, William J. Bratton led two decades of crime declines in the U.S. while simultaneously improving police relations with minority communities and reducing police corruption and abuse.

A U.S. Army veteran who began his career as an officer with the Boston Police Department, Mr. Bratton established an international reputation in the 1990s for re-engineering police departments and creatively fighting crime. As Boston Police Commissioner, then New York City Police Commissioner, he vigorously advanced the idea that police departments could have a far greater impact on crime than was generally believed – and then proved it by cutting crime dramatically.

During the past decade, Mr. Bratton served for seven years as chief of the Los Angeles Police Department, bringing crime to historically low levels in a city known for its entrenched gang culture and violence. Since 2009, he has served as chairman of Altregrity Risk International, bringing matchless expertise in crime reduction, emergency response, police training, counterterrorism and community service.

Mr. Bratton holds a bachelor of science in law enforcement from Boston State College (UMass Boston). He is a graduate of the FBI National Executive Institute and was a senior executive fellow at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government. Mr. Bratton was honored by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II with the honorary title of Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire for enhancing cooperation between American and British police.

THE HONORABLE

DIANE C. MEDEROS '94

Town Administrator – Bristol, R.I.

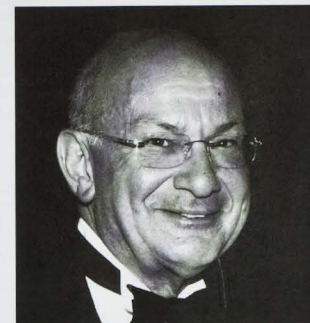

*Doctor of Public Service
Honoris Causa*

A lifelong scholar and dedicated community servant, Diane C. Mederos is currently serving her third term as town administrator in Bristol, R.I. Ms. Mederos was initially elected to public office in November 1984, when she became the first female town clerk in Bristol's history.

A graduate of Bristol High School in 1970, Ms. Mederos proceeded to earn a bachelor of arts in elementary education and English from Rhode Island College in 1974. In 1994, she earned a second bachelor's, graduating magna cum laude with a business administration degree from Roger Williams University. She completed her master's in public administration at the University of Rhode Island in 2000, and in 2008 earned a Hassenfeld Fellowship to attend the "Executives in State and Local Government" program at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

Ms. Mederos is affiliated with several professional organizations and currently serves as vice president of the executive committee of the Rhode Island League of Cities and Towns and as trustee on the Rhode Island Interlocal Risk Management Trust.

Along with her husband, Anthony, and daughter, Tracie, Ms. Mederos resides in Bristol. In 2001, she was privileged to be named Chief Marshal of the 216th Fourth of July Celebration, one of the highest honors afforded a Bristol resident.

ROBERT F. STOICO

Founder, The Robert F. Stoico/FIRSTFED Charitable Foundation

*Doctor of Business Management
Honoris Causa*

A celebrated financial services leader, dedicated community servant and generous philanthropist, Robert F. Stoico currently serves as chairman, president and CEO of The Robert F. Stoico/FIRSTFED Charitable Foundation. The Foundation offers financial support to nonprofit organizations that directly impact the lives of community members in Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts.

Prior to his retirement, Mr. Stoico served for nearly 30 years as chairman, president and CEO of the FIRSTFED AMERICA BANCORP, Inc. During his tenure, he grew the company from a small federal savings and loan serving the Fall River, Massachusetts, region to a multi-billion dollar financial services company with more than 40 locations operating in all of the New England and Mid-Atlantic states.

Throughout his career, Mr. Stoico was a frequent speaker at financial services forums and served in many roles within the industry at organizations including the Community Bank League of New England and the Massachusetts Federal Savings Council, among others. Active in civic and community affairs at institutions across New England, he has been a member of the RWU Board of Trustees since 2002.

Mr. Stoico grew up near Boston, the oldest of seven children raised by his parents, who emigrated from Italy. A certified public accountant, he is a graduate of Boston College. Today, he makes his permanent home in Marco Island, Florida, but still enjoys time in Rhode Island and Cape Cod, Massachusetts.

This list of degree candidates is based upon each student's academic record as of May 1, 2010.

A double asterisk () denotes students who have the distinction of completing the requirements for two majors and are candidates for the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Fine Arts. Honorary distinctions noted in this Commencement Program are based upon students' current cumulative grade point averages, which will be recalculated upon completion of all degree requirements.

Diplomas and official transcripts are issued to graduates only after all degree requirements are met. All degrees and honors are certified by the University Registrar. Honorary distinction, awarded to students who have met the residency requirement (54 credits), are based upon final cumulative grade point averages:

- Summa cum laude – 3.8
- Magna cum laude – 3.6
- Cum laude – 3.4

The standard academic costume used today has its roots as far back as medieval times, when gowns were worn daily in European universities to identify disciplines of study and provide warmth.

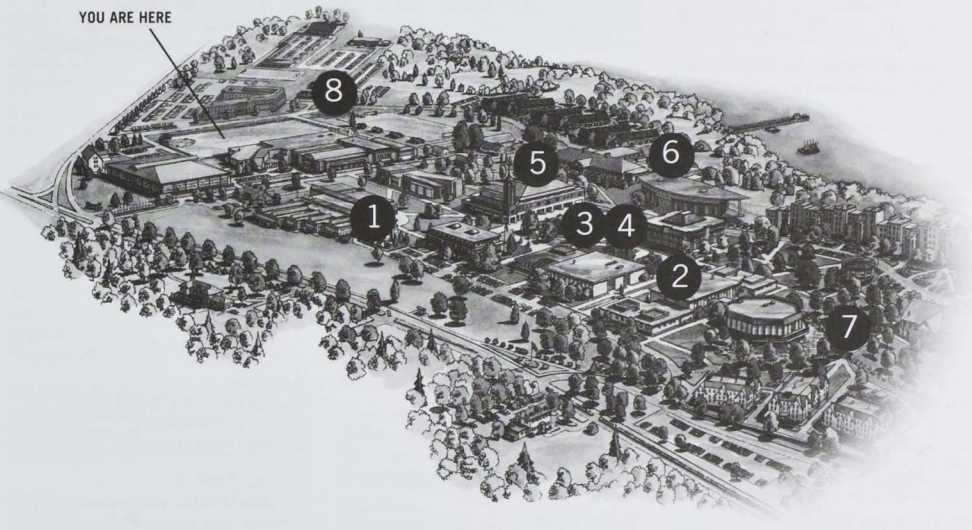

In 1895, American campuses adopted the formal Academic Costume Code based on this historical precedent. The code allows the audience to determine from the costume the degree, academic discipline, and often the institution that awarded the degree.

The academic costume consists of a cap with a tassel, a gown and a hood. The tassel may be in the color of the major field of study, or in gold signifying a doctor. Different tassels are worn by those graduating with honors: white for Summa Cum Laude; white and blue for Magna Cum Laude; and blue for Cum Laude. The gowns range from unornamental for a bachelor; to longer sleeves for a master; to more ornamental, with three bands on the sleeve and front panel, for a doctor. The hood is bordered in the color of the major field of study and lined in the color of the institution which awarded the degree.

Variations from this standard may indicate academic costuming from foreign universities, or a specific expression of a group or individual. The standard academic color code follows.

Major Field	Color
Agriculture	Maize
Architecture	Orchid
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business
Administration	Drab
Criminal Justice	Dark Blue
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts	Brown
Journalism	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Gold
Social Science	Citron
Theology, Divinity	Scarlet
Veterinary Science	Gray
