COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Graduate:

Having arrived at Roger Williams University just last summer, I have enjoyed only two semesters on campus with all of you who graduate today – yet having conversed with many of you in the Commons, watched you present your academic work in classrooms or joined you at events across campus, I can say without hesitation that I am greatly impressed with the Class of 2012.

Today is a day for you to celebrate the momentous achievement of earning your college degree. Through hard work, perseverance, and dedication, you have succeeded in a competitive academic environment at Roger Williams – and that is no small accomplishment. Today, as you reflect on your time on campus, I encourage you to take pride in your academic successes, to treasure the friends you have made, and to cherish the memories that will last a lifetime.

Wherever you may venture next – whether to your first professional job, to continue your education or to trek across the globe – remember that you do so with the solid intellectual foundation you have built at RWU. Have faith in the portfolio of experiences you compiled during your collegiate years. Know that each of the projects in which you engaged the local community and every exchange of ideas you had with individuals both on and off this campus has prepared you for the years ahead.

As you depart our campus, you join a distinguished group of alumni, all of whom contributed to creating the Roger Williams University of today. We want each of our alumni to be proud of our university and to remain engaged in its future. I encourage you to stay connected, to keep us up to date on your achievements, and to offer your expertise as a resource for the next generation of RWU students.

On behalf of the faculty and staff at Roger Williams University, I offer sincere congratulations on your graduation today. Warm wishes and the best of luck.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read "Donald J. Farish". The signature is stylized and fluid.

THE HONORABLE
MADELEINE K. ALBRIGHT
The 64th U.S. Secretary of State

*Doctor of Laws
Honoris Causa*

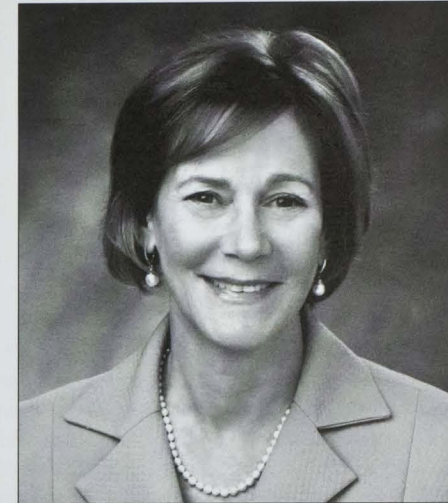

Madeleine K. Albright is Chair of Albright Stonebridge Group, a global strategy firm, and Albright Capital Management, an investment advisory firm.

In 1997, Dr. Albright was named the 64th U.S. Secretary of State, becoming the first female to hold the position and, at the time, the highest ranking woman in the history of the U.S. government. As Secretary of State, Dr. Albright reinforced America's alliances, advocated for democracy and human rights, and promoted American trade, business, labor and environmental standards abroad. For those efforts, she will receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor, from President Obama later this spring.

Dr. Albright is a Professor in the Practice of Diplomacy at the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service. She chairs both the National Democratic Institute for International Affairs and the Pew Global Attitudes Project and serves as president of the Truman Scholarship Foundation. She serves on the U.S. Department of Defense's Defense Policy Board, a group tasked with providing the Secretary of Defense with independent, informed advice and opinion concerning matters of defense policy.

Dr. Albright is the author of five New York Times bestsellers including her renowned autobiography, Madam Secretary: A Memoir (2003), and her most recent book, Prague Winter: A Personal Story of Remembrance and War, 1937-1948, released in April 2012.

Dr. Albright holds a bachelor of arts with honors from Wellesley College and master's and doctorate degrees from Columbia University's Department of Public Law and Government, as well as a certificate from its Russian Institute.

TRUDY COXE
*Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director,
The Preservation Society of Newport County*

*Doctor of Humane Letters
Honoris Causa*

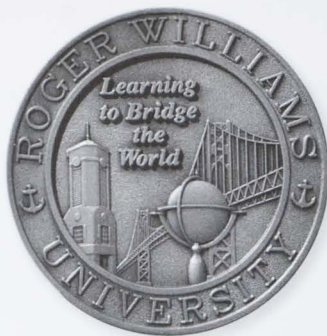

Trudy Coxé joined The Preservation Society of Newport County in December 1998. She oversees more than 400 employees and has grown the organization's operating budget from $9 million to $16 million annually. Under her leadership, visitation has also increased, with more than 900,000 visits annually, as have membership, fundraising and retail sales.

During Ms. Coxé's tenure, 10 of the Society's properties have been designated as Official Projects of Save America's Treasures, a partnership between the White House Millennium Council and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. In April 2004, the Society received accreditation by the American Association of Museums; only 750 of the nation's 16,000 museums are accredited.

From 1993 to 1998, Ms. Coxé served as Massachusetts Secretary of Environmental Affairs. Previously, she was Executive Director of Rhode Island's Save the Bay for 11 years, turning it into the largest citizen action organization in New England. She also served for two years as Director of Ocean and Coastal Resource Management in the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

Among her more recent honors, Coxé was the recipient of a 2006 Award of Excellence from National Garden Clubs, Inc. for her lifetime of environmental advocacy, and the 2001 Mary Brennan Tourism Award from the Rhode Island Hospitality and Tourism Association.

Coxé's volunteer involvement is extensive. Among many roles, she currently serves on the boards of the National Recreation and Park Association, the Appalachian Mountain Club, Grow Smart Rhode Island, the Metcalf Institute for Marine & Environmental Reporting, the Wheeler School, the Newport County Chamber of Commerce, and Child and Family Services.

PRESIDENT'S CORE VALUES MEDALLION

The President's Core Values Medallion was established in 2007 to recognize those graduating seniors who best exemplify the core values of Roger Williams University. The students awarded this honor have truly embraced the University's core values: love of learning as an intrinsic value; preparation for careers and future study; collaboration of students and faculty in research; commitment to community through service and sustainability; appreciation of global perspectives; and promotion of civil discourse.

The University President, working in concert with each of the schools, selected the Presidential Award honorees. Honorees will be presented with a unique medallion – depicting the core values – framed in a commemorative keepsake. The medallion is identical to the one worn by the University President as part of his presidential Commencement regalia.

Please congratulate the award recipients.

ACADEMIC RECORD

This list of degree candidates is based upon each student's academic record as of May 1, 2012.

A double asterisk () denotes students who have the distinction of completing the requirements for two majors and are candidates for the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Fine Arts. Honorary distinctions noted in this Commencement Program are based upon students' current cumulative grade point averages, which will be recalculated upon completion of all degree requirements.

Diplomas and official transcripts are issued to graduates only after all degree requirements are met. All degrees and honors are certified by the University Registrar. Honorary distinction, awarded to students who have met the residency requirement (54 credits), are based upon final cumulative grade point averages:

- Summa cum laude – 3.8
- Magna cum laude – 3.6
- Cum laude – 3.4

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The standard academic costume used today has its roots as far back as medieval times, when gowns were worn daily in European universities to identify disciplines of study and provide warmth.

In 1895, American campuses adopted the formal Academic Costume Code based on this historical precedent. The code allows the audience to determine from the costume the degree, academic discipline, and often the institution that awarded the degree.

The academic costume consists of a cap with a tassel, a gown and a hood. The tassel may be in the color of the major field of study, or in gold signifying a doctor. Different tassels are worn by those graduating with honors: white for summa cum laude; white and blue for magna cum laude; and blue for cum laude. The gowns range from unornamental for a bachelor; to longer sleeves for a master; to more ornamental, with three bands on the sleeve and front panel, for a doctor. The hood is bordered in the color of the major field of study and lined in the color of the institution which awarded the degree.

Variations from this standard may indicate academic costuming from foreign universities, or a specific expression of a group or individual. The standard academic color code follows.

Major Field	Color
Agriculture	Maize
Architecture	Orchid
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Business Administration	Drab
Criminal Justice	Dark Blue
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts	Brown
Journalism	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Gold
Social Science	Citron
Theology, Divinity	Scarlet
Veterinary Science	Gray
