Join Dean Logan for this movie event, co-sponsored by the Multi-Cultural Law Students Association, which will feature a screening of the film Of Civil Wrongs and Rights: The Fred Korematsu Story.

A facilitated discussion will follow the movie. Fresh popcorn and other snacks will be provided.

Fred Korematsu was probably never more American than when he resisted, and then challenged in court, the forced internment of Japanese-Americans during World War II. Korematsu lost his landmark Supreme Court case in 1944, but never his indignation and resolve. Of Civil Wrongs and Rights is the untold history of Korematsu's long, remarkable journey from being a convicted criminal in 1942 to receiving the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1998, and the 40-year legal fight that finally turned a civil injustice into a civil rights victory.
