We Have New Furniture!

September 18, 2018

Last year, the library conducted a survey of its users to help us decide how to provide better seating options and study space in the library.

Based on that input, Betsy Learned, Dean of University Libraries, and Barbara Boisseau, Project Manager of Space Planning and Interior Design, worked with Creative Office Pavilion, a local consultancy firm, to purchase new furniture for the first floor of the library.

The furniture has finally arrived, and we think it's beautiful, comfortable, and versatile. The students we've talked to love their new study space and for the most part, feedback has been quite positive. Stop by to check out our new look, and let us know what you think!
