Hagopian Blasts Easy Rider

The Director of Special Projects on the Providence campus, "Judge" Jacob Hagopian, is responsible for removing these two posters from the cafeteria. When he removed the posters, he is reported to have said that he did not appreciate seeing the flag desecrated.

The first poster depicted Peter Fonda atop his chopper with a red, white, and blue gas tank and a helmet hanging from the sissy bar decorated in like manner. This poster was being used to advertise the library on the Providence campus. The second dealt with repression and was partially covered by the stars and stripes along with a hammer and sickle which covered a "mock" soldier equipped with a gas mask.

Editors note:

As a result of the action mentioned the following memo was circulated by Mr. Richard B. Moses, Head Librarian.

It has been brought to my attention that a poster advertising the library was removed from the Providence Campus cafeteria without the knowledge or advice of the library staff. The poster, depicting Peter Fonda in a scene from the film "EASY RIDER," was apparently summarily taken down and discarded by a member of the College administrative staff.

On the face of it, this was not only a singularly discourteous act, but one completely "out of order," since jurisdiction for library poster placement and removal lies initially with the library staff. I am also concerned that the content of the poster, i.e. Peter Fonda, red, white, and blue chopper, etc., symbolizing all the other things that "Easy Rider" said or implied, may have contributed to its removal.

Should this be the case, the situation becomes one not of simple rudeness (unfortunate enough), but of obvious censorship — that is, the attempt to ban "unpleasant" ideas or "disagreeable" material. Censorship of any sort, particularly extra-legal, is of course anathema to any institution of learning and particularly to the library. An act of censorship (if indeed it was) such as this can lead quite naturally to the questioning and/or removal of books from the shelf or of ideas from the lecture.

No act of censorship, again, particularly extra-legal, can or should be condoned or even tolerated by this or any other college, university, school, or library. There is great concern throughout the nation today over the issue of intellectual freedom; the college campus must represent the very heart of this freedom and any attempts to abridge that freedom must quickly and firmly be dealt with.

I would like to assume that the act of removing the poster was an error of judgement. An exact duplicate of the "Easy Rider" poster will of course replace the destroyed one and I sincerely hope it will remain as long as it serves its function of attracting members of the college community both to the idea of a library and to the library itself.

BRISTOL CAMPUS NEWS

There Goes Another $10.00.

Watch The Signs!

Approximately five cars have been towed from restricted parking areas so far this year. It will cost the owners $10.00 towing fees and $2.00 per day storage fee to get back their cars. (In some cases it may be $20.00 if dollies had to be placed under the car to prevent any damage).

The towing process does not produce any revenue for the college and is only designed to strongly encourage people to observe parking regulations. The practice will be continued so be careful and watch all the signs.

If you feel you have been unjustly towed, you may register an appeal with George Wilding, Security Officer.

New Library Hours and The Inter-Library Loans

by Mark Bigelow

The new library hours have been announced for the 1970-71 academic year at Roger Williams College. There will be a slight change in this year's schedule: Monday-Thursday (8:30 a.m.-10:00 p.m.), Friday: (8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.), Saturday: (1 p.m.-5 p.m.) and Sunday: (2 p.m.-10 p.m.)

The library is also trying to further promote their "Island Interrelated Library System" (Inter-Library Loan) this year. This is a system which allows students at the college to borrow books that the Roger Williams Library does not have on its shelves. A student can request a book that is not in the library and one of the librarians on duty telephone other libraries that are using this system and requests to have the book sent to our college library. This system makes it possible not only to obtain books in R. I., but in other states also.

There are five regions in R. I. which make up this system; the major two being Newport and Barrington. All public and college libraries are also in this system. Many times books are borrowed from Connecticut and Boston.

The "mail inter library loan" is also in service at the library. The chief difference between this system and the "Island Interrelated System" is that the request orders for books are put in the mail rather than telephoning. Either way the books arrive at the library from about 2 to 7 days later. Many times the Providence Public Library handles interstate loans to New Hampshire or Vermont for Roger Williams.

Presently there are about 20,000 volumes of books in the library. This is an increase of about 5,000 volumes from last year. The volume holdings will continue to increase at the rate of approximately 10,000 volumes per year. This increase will continue until about 60 or 70,000 volumes are stacked on the library shelves, with a balanced ordering of books in each individual category. The reference books have increased by 50% over last year and there are 450 magazine titles to choose from. The magazines included copies of "Playboy" and several underground newspapers, etc.

Library handbooks will be distributed to all students shortly, to answer further questions pertaining to all the library facilities.

Student Activities Committee Formed

Think there is nothing to do around campus?

Down 'cause things are dead? A new committee is presently being formed to plan and program a variety of student activities which, hopefully, will meet the interest, excitement, and leisure needs of our student population. They've begun with no money but a little bit of luck and a great deal of enthusiasm may help to keep a good thing going.

The efforts of Student Activities Committee have thus far been concentrated on a Saturday Night Film Series which began on October 3rd with Marlon Brando in The Wild One. Next Saturday, October 10th brings you Brando again in On The Waterfront and Saturday, October 17th features High Noon with Gary Cooper. All three films are to be shown in Lecture Hall No. 1 at 8 p.m. The committee is hopeful that a good turn-out at each of these films with the admission charge at 50 cents each will soon help bring Alice B. Toklas to Roger Williams College!

The Student Activities Committee needs your help. It needs interested, enthusiastic members who want to help make some meaningful things happen for students outside of the classrooms. Folk and rock concerts, poetry readings, film series, encounter group sessions, body painting contests, chess tournaments, open hoots. Most anything can happen here if there are some of us who are willing to MAKE IT! Contact Richard Loudon, Ext. 2168, George Levesque; Silvio Mancini, Ext. 3383; or Sue Sheard, Ext. 3433.

Dorm Government Holds Its First Meeting

by Susan Harlow

September 29, 1970 at 6:30 p.m. the first dorm government meeting was held. The first order of business was to elect officers. Tom Early was elected chairman, Tom Kaiser, vice-chairman, Joyce Menchini, secretary, and Maxine Mayer, treasurer.

The next piece of business was to form a judiciary board to handle misdemeanors committed by residents. Seven people are on the board as of now, they are: Mary Mulligan, Linda Calore, Richard Lynch, Silvio Mancini, Linda Tierney, Elliot Money, and Susan Harlow. If there are any valid reasons why you, the reader, believe that they are unfit to hold this office please feel free to speak to your dorm government representative.

The first meeting of the judiciary board will be on October 5, 1970 at 6:30 in the common lounge. There are still two positions open. If interested please come to the next meeting or contact Silvio Mancini, Chairman Pro-tem.

Issues for change were also brought up. The problem of keeping the cafeteria open till later at night was discussed and a food committee was formed. The members are Paula Lievhaber, Dick Blake, Linda Tierney, and Steve Olsen. Any student interested can contact any of the four. A committee to discuss the parietals is also in the making. If interested see Tom Kaiser, Chairman.

Cafeteria Closes Nightly Snack Bar

About three weeks ago the Canteen Corp. initiated a program whereby the cafeteria would be open nightly Monday-Thursday. This program was run on an experimental basis.

The Snack Bar which had been in operation for the last few weeks has been permanently shutdown. Mr. Fred LaChance, assistant manager of the cafeteria reports that the shutdown is due to lack of participation by the students. The operation had been supervised by Canteen Corp. with college students working nightly.

Another point brought to attention is the vending machines open during the day. These machines are also under the auspices of Canteen Corp. There is a salesman from the company in the downstairs part of the cafeteria everyday Monday-Friday between the hours of 10:30 and 11:30 a.m. The reason for this is to repair any machines reported broken and to issue refunds (within reason, of course).

Questions by the students have arisen as to whether the vending machines could be open for a twenty-four hours. This point is being considered and a decision should be reached soon. Any questions concerning the cafeteria should be directed to Mr. Jim Perrin or Mr. Fred LaChance.

Health Service CL-12

Miss Bigley will be in room 12 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Student Handbook To Be Published

by STEVE JENNINGS

This year due to many concerned students, the first student handbook for Roger Williams College will be published. This handbook is "for the students and by the students", and serves as an aid for information concerning rules and activities.

It will probably be most beneficial to freshman and new students, because it is designed to orient students and answer many questions now being asked by them.

The credit of writing the handbook goes to a committee of fourteen students under the assistance of Mr. Paul Langelo, who for the past three weeks has worked diligently to acquire the necessary information.

Roger Williams should take pride in this achievement for it has truly been recognized as an outstanding institution through its students, faculty and spirit.

them right now than in five to ten years."

He also advocated the invasion of Cambodia and Laos and the formation of a Thai-Cambodian-Vietnamese anti-communist front. (When the actual invasion did come this year Ky led the first air strikes by the Vietnamese Air Force into Cambodia. He was jubilant about the invasion and when interviewed afterwards he foresaw no reason nor expressed any intention that the South Vietnamese forces should withdraw from Cambodia.)

Ky announced and then withdrew his name as a candidate for President of South Vietnam, and finally became the Vice-presidential candidate on the successful Thieu ticket. He has served as Vice President since the Elections in 1967 and retains his position as Commander of the South Vietnamese Air Force. Recent accusations on the U. S. Senate floor by Sen. Stephen Young (D-Ohio) that Ky maintains secret numbered bank accounts in Switzerland and Hong Kong have added to the charges of smuggling in discrediting what Ky has alleged as a clean-up of Saigon corruption.

Ky has stated that he foresees the end of general use of U. S. combat units, but no end to the American presence. His government depends upon continued economic and military support to stay in power. His appearance in Washington is a carefully calculated move to consolidate those forces within the American electorate right before the Congressional elections, notwithstanding the sub-rosa protestations of the Nixon administration to selected members of the Washington press corps. His appearance, however, has invigorated the fall offensive of the Peace Movement by serving as an unbelievably tailor-made situation for protest, and the forging of a new coalition of Peace forces with the forces of change within other communities, primarily the Black community. For many Americans, the Hitler-worshiper shall be greeted with the slogan:

NOT THE DICTATORS

A Bio of Nguyen Cao Ky War Criminal?

WASHINGTON — (CPS) — "People ask me who my heroes are. I have only one — Hitler. I admire Hitler because he pulled his country together when it was in a terrible state in the early thirties. But the situation here is so desperate now that one man would not be enough. We need four or five Hitlers in Vietnam."

Nguyen Cao Ky said that in October 1964. Since then, he has been doing his best to become one of those Vietnamese Hitlers. Now as Vice President of South Vietnam and a possible contender for the presidency in 1971, Ky is coming to Washington to address a Victory-in-Vietnam rally sponsored by fundamentalist radio evangelist Carl McIntire on October 3.

Ky's life is testimony to his creed. And anti-war activists are responding to his visit by planning a rally the morning of his address, and non-violent civil disobedience in response to the visit by a man considered by most of the world's population as a war criminal.

Ky's pleas for continued American aid to a democratic, honest government under seige by the communists are hardly to be taken at face value. Behind the rhetoric of freedom and self-determination lies a corrupt military dictator — Northern-born and French-trained — whose interests lie with the Saigon ruling class, the military elite, and American imperial support.

A North Vietnamese, Ky was born September 8, 1930, in Son Tay (just outside of Hanoi). After graduating from Chu Van An High School in Hanoi he attended a French military academy, Nam Dinh, in Northern Vietnam. He received further military training with the French both in France and North Africa.

He was assigned to a Transport Squadron in North Africa and flew as a fighter pilot against Algerian nationalist forces.

Nichiren Shoshu of America

"What is human life?" and "What is the aim of life?" These two questions have been treated in the field of philosophy.

However, we common people, whether or not we understand such difficult questions, are leading our daily lives in complete indifference. In actuality we are living our daily lives blinded to any purpose and hope for the future, sometimes happy, often sad or at other times full of anger. Even if we cannot give a precise definition of life, it has, nevertheless, a close relationship with us and has as intimate a contact with human life as do science, politics and education.

There are answers to these questions that plague mankind, and the answers have been found in the life philosophy called Nichiren Shoshu.

What is Nichiren Shoshu?

It is the true Buddhism expounded by the true Buddha, Nichiren Daishonin. It is a daily life philosophy. Its purpose is peace and happiness.

Happiness is not an abstract idea, but an actual state that can be realized in our daily lives. A life philosophy which greatly influences happiness cannot be said to be true, unless it is intimately connected with human existence.

There is no one who does not want to be happy. Everyone on earth is always searching for a method by which he can obtain happiness in life. People try to attain happiness in various ways — by obtaining money or power, by using drugs or by reorganizing the social system. Many who follow these methods to obtain happiness soon find out that these methods produce only a delusion of happiness which does not last very long. The end result is always despair, worry, anger, animality, and in general, hell.

But, those who chant Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo to the Gohonzon (the object of worship in Nichiren Shoshu) can solve any problem and achieve a happy life.

What is Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo?

Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo is the essence of the teachings in Nichiren Shoshu. Chanting Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo rhythmically brings one into rhythm with the universe. By working with the Universe or Universal forces one can attain and accomplish anything. This is what brings happiness to all people.

The true intention of Nichiren Shoshu is to save the whole world through attainment of each individual's happiness in life.

Can you think of any better place to start than within thyself?

We, as young people, have tried nearly everything; to change the environment and awaken people to the many wrongs and to the degenerate path our nation seems to be following.

We the members of Nichiren Shoshu ask you, all the students, faculty and the administrators of Roger Williams College to chant Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo with us and overcome your problems. In time, together, we will overcome the problems of this nation and eventually the world.

So come one, come all.

What can better demonstrate to you the nature of truth and that this life philosophy actually works than the proof itself.

So come join us at our meetings which are held just two minutes over the bridge in Portsmouth at 25 Valhalla Drive. (Tel: 683-9290) every Mon. and Fri. evenings at 7:00. For more information see.

Pollution Plagues Bristol

Ecology today is a major concern to many people. Educated men all over the world have realized the need for pollution control. Some of these people are even doing something about the filthy state of our environment. What happened to the educated men at Roger Williams.

It seems strange that a person could preach ecology and not see the pollution in his own backyard. Believe me, there is pollution in our backyard. A walk about the campus would depress most ecology people. There are many beautiful aspects to the college, such as the architecture and landscape, but sometimes these things are forgotten when bits of litter and the like come into view.

In a day when knowledgeable people talk about cleaning up cities, it seems hypocritical that there should be gas floating atop Gauvey's pond. A person should not have to hold his or her breath when passing the physical plant, for fear of asphyxiation.

Usually when someone thinks of a college, automatically certain ideals come into mind. Colleges and college students are generally associated with such things as ecology. It has been a let down for me as I'm sure it has been for other people to see, this pollution in a place where ecology should be prevalent.

What About It?

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sirs:

I have never written to a newspaper before but as a college (human being) activist student in the social revolution/evolution I must ask or even beg for the right to reach out to my special brothers and sisters of your institution (not mine because you have erased me) who possibly may be in need of something quite shocking to the majority of even the most liberal of liberal communities.

Gay Liberation Front, c/o Come Out, P. O. Box 92, Village Station, New York, N.Y. 10014.

For the hundreds or perhaps only one male/female student victims(s) of this sexist culture who might wish to LEARN of a new movement THEN GIVE A DAMN ABOUT YOURSELF and write to this organization. It is sad but "you" either heterosexual or not (who keep this institution going) must fear exposure if you wish to learn, and due to this the G.L.F. does protect you with a sealed unopened wrapper! The G.L.F. does not deal with sexual activities (sorry) but rather concentrates on the concept of the new (?) people and therefore one does not find the usual heterosexual bigotry which unfortunately has been a part of OUR HERITAGE. (The boys in the band — are they serious?)

To those of you either heterosexual or not who oppose this spectrum of the species I submit that you realize that the BLACK Movement, with all its faults and virtues, has liberated you as much as anyone and just possibly WE will benefit from the G.L.F.

Unfortunately NOW is 1970 and due to the special circumstances involved (because I am not a fool) I must not sign my name to this declaration thus avoiding possible (?) blackmail, physical punishment, and even perhaps expulsion from this institution.

The 1970 Political Games

by Political Columnist Gary Beer

While those of us that value our prerogatives as human beings are being frightened and antagonized by our national leaders, we had better take a good look out our back doors. The Rhode Island political scene is no different madness from that at the national level. The most blatant and crucial law and order rhetoric lies in the candidacy of Herbert DeSimone. DeSimone opposes Governor Frank Licht, the one term Democrat who unseated six year Republican Governor Chafee with the investment tax issue. In recent polls Governor Licht has been running behind by as much as 12%.

Governor Licht is considered by many to be one of the most liberal governors in the country. During these years of Republican idiocy and repression it is enlightening to live in a state under such executive rule. Yes, as the polls show, the "campaign 70 disease", or the "infectious new Nixon politics", is hitting home.

DeSimone, with his Madison Ave. advertising, his John Mitchell drug and crime proposals, his ignorant views on school regionalization, his Agnew respect for the Bill of Rights, and his appeal to the ignorance of voters poses a threat to the citizens of Rhode Island as great as the cancer that has infected the executive branch of our Federal government.

Poem

the day breaks . . . the dawn weeps the stars did shine — the moon now cries.

as the sea tide of my soul is flung against the harsh rocky shore rent from the past crippled — unable to flow into the future, my mind hurts.

memories alone remain, my heart cries — the end has come, no future can there be.
mercilessly severed — two separate souls from the symmetry of one.

minds out of rhyme — hearts out of rhythm my soul never to delight at the thought of our being one.
the past was ours, but the future is mine alone.

memories without the hope of more — abroken chain from a garden of eternity only a flower of remembrance; beautiful, yet alone.

Graduate Record Exam Information

PRINCETON, N.J. — Educational Testing Service announced that undergraduates and others preparing to go to graduate school may take the Graduate Record Examinations on any of six different test dates during the current academic year.

The first testing date for the GRE is October 24, 1970. Scores from this administration will be reported to the graduate schools about December 1. Students planning to register for the October test date are advised that applications received by ETS after October 6 will incur a $3.00 late registration fee. After October 9, there is no guarantee that applications for the October test date can be processed.

The other five test dates are December 12, 1970, January 16, February 27, April 24, and June 19, 1971. Equivalent late fee and registration deadlines apply to these dates. Choice of test dates should be determined by the requirements of graduate schools or fellowships to which one is applying. Scores are usually reported to graduate schools five weeks after a test date.

The Graduate Record Examinations include an Aptitude Test of general scholastic ability and Advanced Tests measuring achievement in 20 major fields of study. Full details and registration forms for the GRE are contained in the 1970-71 GRE Information Bulletin. The Bulletin also contains forms and instructions for requesting transcript service on GRE scores already on file with ETS. Selective Service System Under Tarr: Old Wine In New Bottles

by BRUCE LOVELETT
College Press Service

WASHINGTON — (CPS — For the last five months Curtis Tarr, the new director of the Selective Service system, has been engineering a full-scale drive to convert the image of the image of the draft machine from one of the inept, unfair, discriminatory bureaucracy it was under Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, to an efficient, modern, benevolent agency which is seeking to meet the needs of the military while being as fair to everybody as it possibly can.

The image is a good one, with a face-lifting on every level. The new image doesn't change the fact that the Selective-Service System is in the business of deciding which young lads are going to become cannon-fodder or pencil-pushers for the armed forces.

But Tarr has eliminated the most obvious and blatant inequities and rhetoric that used to anger liberals about Gen. Hershey's operation.

One area in which this is especially clear is the respect which the new director has shown for the unfavorable rulings recently handed down against the Selective Service System by the Supreme Court. In June, when the Supreme Court ruled that conscientious objectors need not base their claims of religious grounds, Tarr swiftly responded by drafting the first interpretation of the law and regulations ever done by the Selective Service System, embodying the spirit, and indeed, in several instances, the actual words of the Supreme Court decision.

In contrast, when, in 1965, the high court ruled that church membership and belief in a Supreme Being were not prerequisites for CO status, Gen. Hershey's only response was to issue, unexplained, three years later, a new version of the CO form which eliminated references to church membership and belief in a Supreme Being.

The system's new "liberal and modern" image is also reflected by changes which have been made in the system's house organ, Selective Service News. Gen. Hershey's amusing but grisly front page, right-wing editorials have been eliminated and the news has taken on a totally new look. The format has changed from an old-fashioned, four-column letterpress job to a more fluid three-column offset format, printed in dark blue ink on pastel blue paper. Tarr has moved his column to the inside pages, and the copy has lost its humorous nature. The News used to be packed with wonderful trivalities which read like a Ripley's Believe It or Not for the war machine. This fascinating copy has been dropped, and the News now concentrates on hard news about the functioning of this system. Tarr also makes sure that the articles mention recent court decisions which have come down against the system whenever they are relevant, another innovation for the News.

These changes, however, are merely deceptive shirts of the system's image. Under all the new, liberal rhetoric, the system still continues to concentrate on its dual role of channeling the lives of young men and providing the military with men to be converted into killers.

Tarr's response to the Supreme Court's action in January, which eliminated punitive induction of violators of draft rules, became clear in late June, when the Selective Service regulations were amended to allow induction of men whose numbers had been reached but who had failed to report to a Pre-induction physical when ordered to. Confronted with the large number of men who failed to report to physicals, and the unwillingness of the Justice Department to prosecute these men for violation of the draft law, Tarr amended the regulations in such a way that serious resisters could be weeded out from procrastinators and

Under the new regulation, men who fail to report for the physical will be ordered to report for induction, and given a complete physical at the induction station. Those who fail to show up, or who refuse to step forward when their name is called will then be reported to the Justice Department for refusal of induction. Many men who skip the physical are apparently expected

Students To Participate In "Governance" of University

Editor's Note: Brought to your attention to suggest possible direction for R.W.C.

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. — (I.P.) — A new university governance system for State University of New York at Binghamton will begin implementation this year. The new plan provides for a University Assembly, replaces the Faculty seating 55 faculty, 32 students, and 13 administrators. The Assembly replaces the Faculty Senate as the major policy-making body on this campus.

"This system allows for a 'governance', not a government in the traditional sense of the word. Governance is a fresh approach and denotes a decision-making process involving all constituencies rather than the (now) apparent widespread displeasure that these constituencies tend to have because of their perception of the traditional governmental process on the national, state and university levels."

Committees reporting to the Assembly will be established having differing ratios of faculty, students, and administrators, ranging from large faculty majorities on some committees through to those having large student majorities.

These committee will deal with all aspects of university concern, including academic planning, budget requests, and student social regulations. Each constituency is expected to arrange for the election of its representatives to the university Assembly.

President Dearing said that adoption of the new system represents a "big Hurdle cleared" in efforts to create an "adaptive and contemporary" form of university governance. He felt that the new Assembly, representing all campus constituencies, will involve more aware participants. Hopefully this will lead to a more effective decision-making process.

The College Ombudsman

The ombudsman, Dr. J. Harold Way, appointed by the President, serves as an independent agent of the college to improve communications between the individual and the problems college life presents; and to provide avenues through which these problems can be rectified and, where possible, the cause alleviated. More specifically, this includes receiving complaints, investigating, and taking appropriate action (e.g.) advising, negotiating, persuading.

In such ways the ombudsman assists in making college life less impersonal, and helps the individual find a significant role in relation to it.

Any student, member of the faculty, or college employee who realizes he has a grievance can make an appointment at the ombudsman's office in Bristol, Room 119, on the ground floor of the library . . . Telephone 2187 or in Providence on the second floor at 1760 Broad Street . . . Telephone 274-2200, extension 35.

Bristol Radio Club To Regroup

Last year a few interested students banded together to form a radio club on the Bristol campus. The aims of this club were to eventually supply Roger Williams College with a radio station. Throughout last year these students worked hard and by the close of the Spring semester had the realization of being much closer to their goal. This year we have lost a great many of those students so we are looking for more. If you are interested and feel as though you have some service or knowledge that would be beneficial to the station we need you. All interested students please meet in Unit 5 (in the dormitory) on Oct. 8 at two o'clock. We urge you to be there. This is a gigantic task we have undertaken and it takes people who care, people like you to help.

Thank you,

Gaming Club To Be Organized

Although the Gaming Club got off to a slow start (no one came to the initial meeting), the spirit exists for an active organization here on campus. I've personally talked to at least 2 dozen people who have expressed an interest in such an organization; their specialties ranged from craps to mah jongg. The general hope is to establish an officially constituted student club which would be eligible for funds from the Student Senate. With finances, it would conceivably be possible to form varsity as well as (within-school) competition in most areas.

Early indication point to a particularly strong chess department. James Deloaserva, for instance, is a sound player who generally believes in sacrificing his victims pieces. In the following game however, he "sacks" his own bishop unexpectedly for a winning position. His opponent brings the game to a speedy end with a blunder in a hopelessly lost endgame.

If you are interested in the Gaming Club, please come to the meeting on Wednesday, October 7, at 3:30 p.m. in Rm. 34, or contact me, Brian Dennis, through the Quill Office.

to report for induction, thereby accomplishing the system's purpose without the expense and hassle of a criminal prosecution. In this way the number of draft law trials is kept low, which was the function of the more blatantly oppressive delinquency rules in the first place, and yet the system is able to efficiently deal with the failure of men to report for physicals.

While the new Supreme Court ruling, and Tarr's guidelines for judging CO cases have doubled the number of new alternative service registrants per month over the summer and have caused several draft board members to resign, the overall effect of these actions on the efficient functioning of the system has been nil. Less than one percent of the current registrant pool is involved in the issue of conscientious objection. These few are easily ignored by the system, which carries on with its main function of manipulating the lives of 22 million registrants into socially useful channels.

BUBBLE or COMPLEX

by JIM HEALEY

Has the proposal for the constructing of a bubble on the Roger Williams College Bristol campus been placed in a state of dormancy or has it been totally dissolved?

The impression gained from an interview with Paul Rocheford, Dean of Student Services, was that a more pressing need, that being the building of an additional student residence hall, had taken priority over the construction of the bubble. The allocation of the funds for the structure would therefore be delayed until further funds could be obtained. The delay of the anticipated bubble according to Mr. Rocheford would "not be at the expense of the bubble but would be in addition to it." The new residence hall will house an additional 300 students.

Another interview concerning the bubble was held with Mr. Roy Welch, Director of Public Relations. Director Welch was strongly in favor of a more permanent structure that would service a variety of both indoor and outdoor activities. Some of the facilities included would be a men's gymnastic area, a women's gymnasium area, judo-wrestling room, a running track, and a baseball diamond. Mr. Welch felt that such a permanent structure would seem to be more economically beneficial to the college over a longer period of time. The life expectancy of the temporary bubble was approximated by Mr. Welch to be ten years.

The cost of a permanent edifice would be in the range of two and one half million dollars, whereas the temporary bubble would cost 100,000 dollars.

Buildings now fully constructed at the R.W.C. Bristol campus include a library, administration building, dormitory, classroom building, science building and dining hall. A physical education building of some construct is hopefully geared for Phase II. This would enable R.W.C. students to make physical education part of their college experience.

Bristol Make Up Exams

Students of Mr. Stein's spring semester, 1970; History 102, and his summer session History 101, who have to make up grades or incompletes should be present in Lecture Hall 1 at 2:30 on Tuesday, October 6, 1970. The History 102 exams will cover chapters 22-31 in the larger text, and in Carroll, the sections entitled "The Search for Security" and "The Age of Anxiety". Students from this summer should read the relevant chapter in the text and the reading books on the Renaissance and the Reformation.

Students who received an incomplete from Mr. Fox last spring semester may take a make-up final examination on Friday, October 9, between 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. in CL-7.

A Talk With Soccer Coach Bill Joseph

by DENIS BESSETTE

Again this year Roger Williams has launched their soccer schedule. The Hawks have a new coach for the '70 season, Mr. Bill Joseph.

Mr. Joseph is a Bristol native, and he comes to RWC from Bristol High, where he served as an assistant for four years. The Colts were very successful during this time, having two first place and two second-place finishes.

The coach hopes to bring some of this success to Roger Williams. Although the team was beaten by a wide margin in its first two contests, it should be pointed out that these were two strong clubs and the Hawks had only a week to prepare for their opener.

Coach Joseph says the team has good spirit, and great determination, and with hard work they can make up for their lack of pre-season training. If the attitude of the team stays good, then they should hit their peak about mid-season, and have a more successful second half.

There is some great potential, noted the coach, and some fine leadership. A bright spot in the opening losses was the play of Capt. Jim Maquire, the Hawks' goalie who was under heavy pressure, yet made some fine stops. Abdou Joff and Richard de Angelis are two scoring threats who can really maneuver maneuver the ball. If the team can put it together, they should be tougher opposition for any competition.

The first home game is Wednesday, October 7th, against Hawthorne. A good turnout of Hawk rooters would surely encourage the team to put forward a winning effort.
