RWU Law Moot Court Team Tops National Finals

Posted by David Logan on 03/25/2011 at 11:17 AM

advanced, along with Boston University, to the Nationals after winning the Northeast Regional Competition last fall in what has been a truly impressive year link to [/blog/moot-court-kudos] for all of our moot court teams.

Also in NYC last month, 2L Sarah Parker ranked fifth among the Top 10 Individual Oralists at the Northeast Super Regionals of the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition – the world's largest moot court competition, with participants from over 500 law schools in more than 80 countries. The rest of RWU Law's team consisted of 3Ls Rebecca Aitchison, Robert Mount, Sarah Skahill and Irene Tspolitis. Kudos also to coaches Kate Greene (Assistant Director of Center for Global and Int'l Programs at RWU) and Professor Louise Teitz.

Congratulations go out all of our excellent student advocates – and to faculty coach Professor Jon Shelburne, who oversees all of our terrific moot court programs!
