Yui Chosen as Finalist in 2016 ABX EXPO Competition

October 17, 2016

Leonard Yui, Assistant Professor of Architecture, and Sahoko Yui were chosen as 1st phase finalists in the WHAT'S IN "The Quad: A Design Competition to Create Social Space" completion as part of the ABX (Architecture Boston Expo) in November. The "Quad" Competition is an international call for a social space installation. Proposals should envision a meaningful and impactful installation occupying a 20'x70' area that enriches the experience of social interactions. Proposal should employ thoughtful and innovative exhibition and fabrication methods without sacrificing cost and feasibility of construction. 1st Phase Finalists were announced on June 16, with 2nd Phase submission due on August 17. A final winner will be selected September 7, with installation at ABX 2016 in Boston over November 15-17.
