Identification Statement

The Roger Williams University Law Review is a journal of legal scholarship and commentary that is managed, edited, and published by Students of Roger Williams University School of Law. The Law Review publishes four issues each year. The National Edition is devoted to topics of national interest. The Rhode Island Edition focuses on Rhode Island topics, and features a survey of recently-enacted Rhode Island statutes, as well as significant local case law. The Justice for All Edition discusses how different legal services and legal education programs can be made more accessible and inclusive to traditionally marginalized communities. In addition, the Law Review also publishes a symposium issue, the focus of which varies yearly. Committed to serving both a national and Rhode Island audience, the Law Review is distributed to law school libraries, government institutions, private law firms, and individual subscribers.

Subscription rates: $28.50 per year in the United States; $33.00 per year in foreign countries. Single issues are $15.00 each. Please address all subscription requests and other business communications to the attention of the Administrative Assistant, Roger Williams University Law Review. If a subscription is to be discontinued at the expiration of the current volume, then notice to that effect should be sent to the Administrative Assistant; otherwise, subscriptions will be automatically renewed. One month's notice is necessary to effect change.

Copies of Articles: Except as otherwise provided, the author of each article in this issue and the Roger Williams University Law Review grant permission for copies to be made available for classroom use, provided that (1) the copies are distributed at or below cost; (2) the author and the Law Review are identified on each copy; (3) a proper notice of copyright is affixed to each copy; and (4) the user notifies the Law Review that copies have been made.

Submission of Manuscripts and Letters

The Roger Williams University Law Review accepts unsolicited manuscripts and letters, both in paper form and via electronic mail. All manuscripts must be typewritten, double-spaced and on 8½" x 11" paper; footnotes should conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (21st ed. 2021).

Although the Law Review reserves the right to edit all manuscripts and letters, it is the goal of the Law Review to preserve the individuality of each author's work. The Law Review edits manuscripts for spelling, grammar, citation form, and other technical matters. Neither the author's writing style nor the substantive structure is revised without the express consent of the author.

Manuscripts and letters cannot be returned. Acknowledgment of receipt of manuscripts is made immediately upon receipt, and publication decisions are made within two weeks of receipt.

Copyright is reserved by the Law Review to all material published by the Law Review, absent express agreement to the contrary.
