Over the semester break, one of the stars of the RWU Law junior faculty, Susan Heyman, had a rare treat: visiting the chambers of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Ruth Bader Ginsberg, as part of a delegation of law professors from across the nation. The occasion was the presentation of the "Lifetime Achievement Award" from the Association of American Law Schools Section on Women in Legal Education, reflecting Justice Ginsberg’s contribution to the evolution of the law in a career that has included law teaching, litigating on behalf of women’s rights, a decade as a judge on the United States Court of Appeals, and finally her service as an Associate Justice on the Supreme Court. Here is a picture of Susan (third from right), Justice Ginsberg, and the delegation. Congratulations Susan!
