Registration Causes Involutions
Changes Life Directions For Many

According to the Registrar's Office, approximately 1300 students have registered at the Bristol campus of Roger Williams, and another 1150 students at the Providence campus. With the growth in school population, comes the normal hiccups in registration. Many incoming freshmen as well as returning upperclassmen found it difficult to obtain a schedule and course of study to their liking.

Many found on registration day, that one, if not all, of the courses they had intended to take this semester were not available. Therefore, a massive confusion was created. People suddenly found they were left to rearrange their whole schedule without the supervision or consultation of their advisor. Students have been unable to complete their major or minor classes of study because their last name begins with maybe an S instead of an A.

Register Jones attributes most of the problems here to the great number of elective people are taking. Also, for some reason, many seniors are taking sophomore classes. Due to the fact that seniors have priority, some upperclassmen who have registered, many sophomores with sophomores seeking their courses of study.

In an ever growing college community such as Roger Williams, there will always be rough areas that need to be smoothed out. This problem of registration is just a good example of such an area.

Some of the sections the people found closed on registration day, have been opened at the request of the Registrar's Office. People still having problems with course conflicts are invited to come to the Registrar's Office and maybe work out their hassles.

Internationally Known Conservationist
To Be 1st Lecturer

Dr. Lewis I. Milne, internationally known wildlife conservationist and member of the zoology department of the University of New Hampshire, will be the first speaker in the series of four lectures concerned with present ecological crisis to be held this fall at Roger Williams College. The college is sponsoring the series under a $2,000 grant from the S & H Foundation.

Dr. Milne, who will speak at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 3, in the main lecture hall of the classroom building at the college's Bristol campus, will discuss "The Fate of the World: A Discussion of the Nature of Ecology." The famed naturalist will also lead a symposium on the subject at 1 p.m. in the same hall.

The entire lecture series is open free of the public to anyone who wishes to come to the Registrar's Office and register. The course may be a waste of time.

Draft Deferrment Notifications
You Must Request 2-S From College

Students who have previously obtained Student Draft Deferrals from their Local Draft Board and who desire to acquire a deferment for the first time should secure a Student Draft Deferral from the Registrar's Office. This form, when completed, should be submitted to the Registrar's Office where a Selective Service Form 109 (certifying your status and attendance at the college) must be forwarded to your Local Draft Board. Failure to do so will result in your not receiving a Draft Deferral unless you have completed a Selective Service Form 104 and submitted it directly to your Local Draft Board.

Students who have previously had Draft Deferrals should make certain that the College records theirs their Draft Board of their attendance or they will be reclassified normally during the month of October into deselected status. Generally speaking, new students who have never obtained a Draft Deferral and whose Draft Lottery Number is not in the draftable category need not concern themselves about the deferment they do desire. Please note, however, that students who do not notify the Draft Office of their deferral request will be reclassified normally during the month of October into deselected status. It should be noted that deferrals are granted only for those students who request them for a collection of reasons other than the college desire to participate for or are actually pursuing a full-time course of study for a semester or more. Draft Deferrals are normally held for a period of one year.

1500 Pieces of Knowledge on Display

The Roger Williams College Library, in conjunction with the Island Library System, a cooperative organization of the libraries of Bristol and Newport Counties, will have on display from Sept. 28 to Oct. 8 a collection of 1500 new American paperback books put out by 102 different publishers.

The display, called the Combined Paperbacks Exhibit, is compiled by the American Book Publishers Council to help libraries and students get ideas for new developments in paperbacks publishing. It covers such subjects as the arts, literature and language, and social and behavioral sciences, mathematics, and hobbies.

Librarians from Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts have been invited to visit the exhibit, which will be arranged on the second-level reading area of the new tri-level Roger Williams College Library on the Bristol campus of the college. According to Richard Moses, Librarian, the display will also be open to the public during regular library hours.

The Roger Williams College Library is the only one in Rhode Island and southern New England to be included in the Combined Paperbacks Exhibit this year.

The schedule for the Combined Paperbacks Exhibit is as follows: Roger Williams College, Bristol, Rhode Island. September 28, 1970 to October 8, 1970.

Monday-Thursday — 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Friday — 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Saturday — 1:00 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Sunday — 1:00 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Bristol Performing Arts Center Opens

The Bristol Performing Arts Center is open for your inspection and enjoyment. The goal of the Bristol PAC is to bring together musicans and performers who express themselves in an atmosphere of sound and fun for performing art. We hope to provide for this area outlet for expression and entertainment. In addition, the PAC will also be available to the public.

At the moment, we are opening the club on a preliminary basis. In three weeks we'll officially open, and at that time the Bristol PAC will operate on private membership support, and will be available to the public. The Bristol PAC is located on Tupelo Street.
Our New Constitution

by Stan Shatz

During its first year of exist­ence the student government of Bristol College functioned without an effective constitution. A constitution did not exist to meet the needs of the governing senate of the student body. It did not posses­se the power to determine the rights and duties of the student body. It did not give the student body the power to make decisions for itself.

A constitution must exist to meet the needs of the student body. It must give the student body the power to make decisions for itself. It must give the student body the power to act upon its decisions. It must give the student body the power to elect its own representatives. It must give the student body the power to elect its own president. It must give the student body the power to elect its own vice-president. It must give the student body the power to elect its own treasurer. It must give the student body the power to elect its own secretary. It must give the student body the power to elect its own members at large. It must give the student body the power to elect its own members in the Senate.

The time for campaigning will be from October 2nd until October 8th. Voting will be held on October 8th and 9th. All full-time regis­tered students who vote must present their student ID card or any legal identification. The names will be checked against a master list of students in order to prevent duplicate voting. Voting will take place in front of the Quill office. Each student will vote for six re­presentatives from his class and four representatives at large.

Parking and Traffic Review Committee

The following Parking and Traffic Review Committee has been organized to facilitate effective traffic control and to provide an ap­peals mechanism for those individuals whose cars have been ticketed and/or towed. It is representative of the students, faculty, and staff and will also consider other matters pertaining to parking and traffic.

The function of the Committee shall include:

1) Review parking and traffic regulations and recommend changes.
2) To act as an appeal body for appeals of charged violations and render a judgement thereon. Decisions of the Committee shall be considered final, and all fines and penalties will be strictly on­forced by the College administration.

Initial appointments to the Committee are:

(1) Student - appointed by Dean Goldenberg and subject to Senate ratification.

~c. Jack Mahoney
~. Staz Scitzer
~. Eve Bliserman

(2) Faculty (2) volunteers and subject to Faculty Senate ratification.

Mevyn Topf
Tulip Paula

(3) Staff (1) - appointed by President Gauvey.

Robert Robinson

(4) Mr. George Widing, Security Officer; will also serve as a member of the Committee ex officio without vote, for the purpose of assisting in bringing appeal cases before the Committee and in following up on decisions made.

As noted previously, Mr. Hallenbeck's memo of September 21st, everyone's cooperation is essential in observing parking and traffic rules on the Bristol campus. Without this cooperation and with 1500 people and 900 cars on campus each day, continuous chaos would prevail to the detriment of our safety, as well as our convenience.

Incidentally, the estimated $500 to $600 received from the sale of parking stickers will be used to purchase stickers, provide security supervision in parking areas, and keep the lots clean and free of snow.

We are asking Mr. Widing to call the first meeting of the Commit­tee and arrange for the election of a chairman from among the other members. Questions for the Committee may be assured of con­sideration by giving them to Mr. Widing.

Ed. note: pig nation Report (copyright 1970 by Stephen Crosby Hoffman) is a frequent review of important items that have appeared during the course of the in-power fascists, and have found their way to the hearts of the majority of the pig nation. This week the re­port shall concentrate on the few worthwhile pieces of "Nar­cotic Music" (copyright Spior Agnew -- from a speech in Cal­ifornias Aug. 1970 that hit­tered through this past sum­mer.) Stage Fright -- The Band" Captain Beefheart & the Magic Band

Jamie Robbins Robertson created a group of songs for this L.P. that shall engrave him as one of the few truly fine creators on the American Rock scene; some­thing sorely needed in a world of the obvious downward plod of American Rock. I suspect that the "The Bad News" when it becomes class along with Jamie, with a future album. Its only fault is that only to that of the Beatles; but alas only time will tell, but in so fast a Stage Fright shall pave the way.

Eric Clapton -- Atco -- SP-326/329

A complete cycle of Dylan lies within this two LP set that ranges from the more pretentious to the most progressive record Co. in the business -- Blue Thumb. Not a lot of balls. Buy it, listen to it. You make you feel like real people again, which is something we lose to often.

Alone Together -- Dave Mason IFS-19

This is unique -- buy it just to look at it; it's a "photography" record. A kangaroo pouch pocket that comes with an index of every photograph ever put on a record jacket -- and both sides too at that. What's more, inside each cover you'll be shown to resemble a sort of psychedelic marble. It's a great visual toy brought to you by the world's most progressive record Co. in the business -- Blue Thumb.

No shit. After all you'd think it would be a down; well it ain't. Dave Mason, who for so long had to take the background role of Steve Winwood in Traffic has come out with a song­mage in the form of a song­matic poster in his own right. WHOOSH!

House -- Procol Harum A&M SP-4361

You may write me all the nasty letters you like, but I'll still say that Procol Harum is not only one of the most undated groups in rock, but also one of the best. -- One of the best of the five that is. That's right, right behind the Beatles, Stones, Airplane or whatever -- they're that good.

For four years now, they've cut LP after LP progressed and mar­shaled and still stuck the back­ground. WHY? They don't care about publicity or bread or fame -- they just dig music. They have a prime example. Along with the Clapton LP it rates the best of the summer. It's pure, simple and honest, so very down to it, that his hard to take. I guess if there was another record that comes in line of laying on reality it would be the same. A song about a man who decides to resign or is deceived and the advantages of a truly effective doctrine. Dave Mason, who for so

Welcome Back Weekend

The orientation committee of the Providence Campus planned an outing at Rocky Point Park on Saturday, September 18. The total cost of this outing was $3.00 a person, and people with beards $1.00. This included clam cakes, chowder and watermelon, all you could eat. Also the use of the park and all the rides you wanted to go on. The people that attended this outing enjoyed themselves except for Murray, who couldn’t take all the rides. He was quite sick! A football game followed, a hard hitting game of touch! After the game everybody returned to the lounge to enjoy themselves with ice cold drinks (beer).

We tip our hats and congratulate this committee on a successful outing and looking forward to more in the future.

Providence Quill Needs Help

This is a plea to all incoming students and all returning students to join the Quill. When most of the present staff joined we didn’t know a damn thing about the running of a school newspaper, but we learned. The reason we learned it that everybody helped everybody else. With team work you can get anything done. So if you can type, write, proofread or even if you are just curious, come on in, WE NEED YOU!

R. W. C. Soccer Schedule

On Saturday September 26, 1970 the Roger Williams College soccer team will play Belknap College in Center Harbor, New Hampshire. The Hawks are led by returning veterans Jim Maguire, Greg Holmen, Bob Spivak and Tom Malone. Despite a loss to Eastern Nazarene College last Saturday first year coach Bill Josephs is looking forward to an improvement over last season’s 0-6 record. This is only the second year for soccer as a varsity sport at RWC.

Review:

"I'm Herbert" by Robert Anderson performed Sept. 18th at the Roger Williams College Coffee House Theater.

Directed by William Grandgeorge, Production Manager — Silvio Mancini.

The Cast:

Herbert — Jack Mahoney
Muriel — Sheila McHugh

"I'm Herbert", billed as a "present day comedy" was performed as the introductory play to the 1978-79 RWC Coffee House Theater season, last Thursday, Sept. 18th. The play concerned with sartorial and haberdizing confusion of it is, with the latter and about as hard to laugh at as "2". The cast, Jack Mahoney, as Herbert, and Sheila McHugh as Muriel, laughed at their own lines, at times with the audience, and not as an integral part of their characters. This came across as almost a self-mocking and a total lack of concern for the material by the actor and the actress. This has plagued William Grandgeorge occasionally in the past, and shall probably continue in the future, as no fault of his own. He is a much more than capable director, but unfortunately has quite an inadequate supply of good and/or reliable actors. The good people just don't seem to show up, or do so seldom. Never the less, he continues, and if given the time he puts on a good, and original performance, regardless.

Unfortunately he didn't have enough time or people for a good performance of "I'm Herbert". But then it was his directing, and that only, it seems, that gave you an idea of what the play should have been like. You came away with the understanding that the whole thing should have come off as a thought comedy — something in the line of "The Boys in the Band," "Catch 22", or "The Graduate"; i.e. you laugh and then you find yourself saying, that's not really funny, it's horrible, or sad or repulsive — it's reality.

As for the other aspects of the Coffee House the, technical aspects, music etc., they were marvelous. Silvio Mancini as production manager, did his usual exceptional job in coordinating the technical details. Mr. Mancini is becoming one of the better people in the area, and should become quite the professional some day. He's one of the few assets in the theater dept., not to mention one of the biggest of the very few in the performance of "I'm Herbert".

The music proved to be the biggest "saver" of the night though. The Jazz trio (though it was a quartet for this performance) is now led by Fred Bonomo at the piano. Unquestionably Mr. Bonomo is one of the finest and most original pianists around R. I. The back up group of Mike Humpty, (percussion) and Brian Dennis (Bass) are also quite extraordinary, though not as refined, and blend in immensely well with Mr. Bonomo's talents. Together they form quite a group and deserve much more attention in the future. — Ah ye, there is Dennis — he played flute, with out rehearsal and said "I'm just Dennis", often.

Thank you Dennis

HISTORY EXAMS

Students of Mr. Stein's spring semester, 1970; History 102, and his summer session History 101, who have to make up grades or incompletes should be present in Lecture Hall 1 at 2:30 on Tuesday, October 6, 1970. The History 102 exams will cover chapters 22-23 in the large text, and in Carroll, the sections entitled, "The Search for Security" and "The Age of Anxiety". Students from this summer should read the relevant chapters in the text and the reading books on the Renaissance and the Reformation.

Harbinger Activities

For Coming Year

The literary magazine, Harbinger, is planning the following activities for the coming school year:

The first issue of the magazine will appear in late first semester. It will feature the work submitted to the staff by the students. A deadline for contributions of prose, poetry, art and photographs will be announced.

A puppet series featuring the works of individual writers, will be initiated in the fall and continue through second semester.

Prose and poetry readings are also planned; these readings will feature students from Roger Williams who wish to express themselves verbally as well as guest speakers.

The second annual kite flying contest is planned for early spring; prizes will be awarded by the magazine and the Art department.

Several one man art exhibits are planned for fall and spring; the magazine also hopes to work with the Art Department in an attempt to organize a gallery so that students enrolled in the art program may exhibit their works for possible sale.

A writing contest will be announced early in the second semester, before the deadline of the second issue of HARBRINGER.

The first meeting will take place on Monday, September 29, 1970 at 1:30 p.m. in the HARBINGER office which is located on the third floor of the Library in room 309. Any student interested in helping with the above planned activities or joining the staff should plan on attending this meeting.
