Celebrating the Holidays, RWU Style

The annual Law Alumni Holiday Party in Providence was especially fun this year because of the addition of two noteworthy events, the receipt of a gift from the leading regional law firm Adler Pollock & Sheehan and the awarding of our annual Alumni Public Service Award.

The close connection between Adler Pollock & Sheehan and RWU Law is manifest in the terrific alums who practice there (pictured below). We also saluted Hans Bremer ('08) on his outstanding pro bono work in practice, no surprise given his dedication to helping the underserved during his law school years.

We also screened the special video made to celebrate our 20th anniversary http://law.rwu.edu/20th-anniversary/video and had a shout-out to our “founding mothers and fathers” - the terrific alums from our classes of 1996 and 1997.

Lots of fun, some toys collected for tots and a great way to wrap up the end of the semester and the year.
