As we wrap up exams and head into the summer, we always take a moment to salute the pro bono accomplishments of the graduating class. Students, faculty, staff, and the many lawyers and judges who supervise our students as they get valuable on-the-job training while fulfilling our 50-hour mandatory pro bono requirement gathered in Providence to salute student dedication.

There are really two parts of the program: recognition of the winners of individual awards, and the students who substantially exceed the 50 hour requirement. The award winners are:

- Public Interest Award: Marcus Swift and Karina Valencia
- Pro Bono Collaborative Award: Jayna Velez and Michael da Cruz
- Clinical Legal Education Association Award: Garrett Marshall
- Kathleen M. Birt Memorial Conflict Resolution Prize: Natasha Ludwig
- Association of Corporate Counsel Northeast Chapter Law Student Ethics Award: Marcus Swift
